Well Rules has just been the history with "Rommy Bay"
 Elzinga. Personally I think Allistair was the most exciting part of this whole year. What an awesome stud, huh!
 It was fun writing those stories about my "special weekend" w/ him. By the way, do you still have yours? I want to read it again if you have it. Well when I keep it I'll tell him Allistair this summer I'll have a great watch you say hi.
 I think he's turned gay - so tell him
 Well Rules have a license radical summer and I hope you get your license soon. Maybe this summer I'll have my "Special weekend"!!
 It's Been Real - Peace Brotha (our little joke)!!

FAT BOYS

VARSITY CHEERLEADERS LEAD THE SCHOOL

Being a Varsity Cheerleader is an important part of the unity of Northgate. In order to do a successful job, "One must be willing to dedicate a great deal of time and effort during the school year," says Kristin Luther, head Varsity Cheerleader. The job is definitely not all fun and glamour, and it goes far beyond cheering at athletic events. Kristin summarizes it with, "We are responsible for planning the rallies, making the signs, decorating lockers and other jobs which take up a great deal of school time."

Yet, the cheerleaders do not complain, because as Kristin says, "When we cheer we feel involved with the whole school. It brings with it a great feeling of satisfaction being able to lead the crowd during the excitement or even to get them motivated."

Part of the cheerleaders' tremendous success has been due to the crowd. According to Kristin, "This year the crowd has been great. It is a wonderful feeling having a responsive crowd who helps when we are out there working so hard." The success of the fall sports this season has also been important. These successes have made us all very proud to be involved and to be Northgate cheerleaders."

J.V.'S CHEER FOR VICTORY

What does it mean to be a J.V. Cheerleader? Christine Kerr, Head of the J.V. squad, says "You feel really honored being a cheerleader, it feels good to be representing the school and the teams you cheer for."

Part of the whole cheerleading experience is camp. This is where the squad, which this year consists of three new and five returning members, gets to know one another. They work hard everyday for a week to learn new routines and how to perform well. The squad and each individual is evaluated everyday on a range of skills. This year the J.V. squad won a trophy for superior execution of cheers.

For Christine and her squad, cheerleading becomes a significant part of their lives. "You have to devote a lot of your time to it, and you have to want to be the person in that uniform or you won't get anything out of the experience." The hard work and all the time spent really show, the J.V. squad does an exceptional job!

SONGLEADERS SHOW THEIR SPIRIT

Roxanna Mercado, head of the Songleaders, provided a perfect definition of what Songleaders are: "We are the leaders responsible for securing the intangible bond that exists between the players and the crowd." Another point which seems to be overlooked is that the Songleaders must support a team whether it wins or loses. This type of dedication and responsibility must lead to a very united squad. Roxanna's verification is an insight into the complexity of a squad which is taken for granted by the majority. "The closeness between my squad is different from any other type of friendship. It is a unique bond that is hard to understand. Our squad has a unity that is important for us to work well together."

Being a Songleader is hard work, they practice all summer from the day school gets out until the day it starts, plus practice twice a week or more during the school year. But there is more than just work. "We get to experience the self-fulfillment, the self-discipline and motivation that comes from being a Songleader." Says Roxanna, "Performing in front of the crowd at games and rallies is a wonderful part of being a Songleader. The excitement we feel is overpowering because we are between the crowd and the players."

All the work and unity shows in this polished squad, but Northgate was not the first crowd to appreciate their skill. At camp they received the Unity Award, which is the highest award given!!

PIKETTES SALUTE NORTHGATE

The Pikette squad starts off their summer with practice everyday in preparation for camp. It is at camp where new routines are learned and practiced, but as Laurie James, head of the Pikettes, said, "We realized practice really does make perfect and we received a Superior Trophy for our individual performances."

This year all the members are new to the squad and Laurie says, "We feel this has a lot to do with our togetherness, we are all equal and we accept that. Friendship is very important; the squad feels we are very close."

The main goal for the eight member squad is "presenting a good appearance with the band," but they spend most of their time on the football field preparing for shows.

As the season closes there is relief and sadness "We will miss all the fun experiences after school and even freezing on the football field at 7:00 in the morning."

In all, the squad has learned a lot about responsibility, dedication and a love for Northgate.

LETTER CARRIERS ARE SYMBOLS OF UNITY

Karen Borgman, head of the Letter Squad, uses these four words to describe what it takes to be a successful Letter Carrier; "Practice, dedication and time!" Especially practice, which is necessary everyday, for up to three hours a day. Routines often have to be worked out and perfected in three days, but as Karen puts it, "Performing makes all the practice worth it; it's our favorite part of our job."

"Being a Letter Carrier makes you feel like you really belong to the school," says Karen. "You learn to understand people and there is a real unity in our squad."

The dedication and hours of practice brought the Letter Carriers their first reward this season at camp-a Superior Trophy and a Spirit Stick. There are many more rewards in store for this exceptional squad.

MASCOTS SUPPORT A WINNING SEASON

It's great to be able to get out in front of the whole school and just act as weird as you want to. You can really let yourself go and no one will comment on it. The crowd is up there looking down at you and you know it, but it's OK, because they're laughing.

RALLY COMMISSIONERS HOLD SCHOOL SPIRIT IN THEIR HANDS

There is a great deal of responsibility wrapped up in this position. The school depends on the rally commissioners to get the spirit moving. Everyone grows excited about upcoming events. They are truly the back bone of the school spirit.

A REGAL PAIR

There are a number of striking qualities found in each Homecoming Candidate for 1984, but a few characteristics are evident in the King and Queen.

Amy Lagao, crowned Homecoming Queen, 1984, without a doubt, gives one the impression of being a congenial individual who finds the best in everyone she meets. Her modest but outgoing personality is definitely her most appealing attribute.

Homecoming King Shawn White is energetic and exuberant in everything he does, particularly while representing the Broncos on the football field. His many talents keep him busy, but Shawn is always there when a helping hand is needed.

FORMALLY AND FOR FUN

Homecoming Court Has Its Jesters

Each year Mr. Dennis Ashlock takes the Homecoming candidates to a scenic spot to photograph them. The pictures are usually lovely formal shots of the candidates posed as a royal group. But this year, something happened. As well as the usual pictures, Mr. Ashlock caught this 1984 group at various moments during the photo session. These sixteen people are more than just another group of pretty (and handsome) faces. When Tom Castles, Mike Connors, Dean Haraguchi, Doug Lee, Brian Mack, Steve Radakovich, Kevin Ryan, and Shawn White are joined by Andrea Blohm, Amy Hartman, Amy Lagao, Karen Laderer, Roxanna Mercado, Lisa Vujovich and Noël Wood, the afternoon is anything but serious.

A CROWNING ACHIEVEMENT

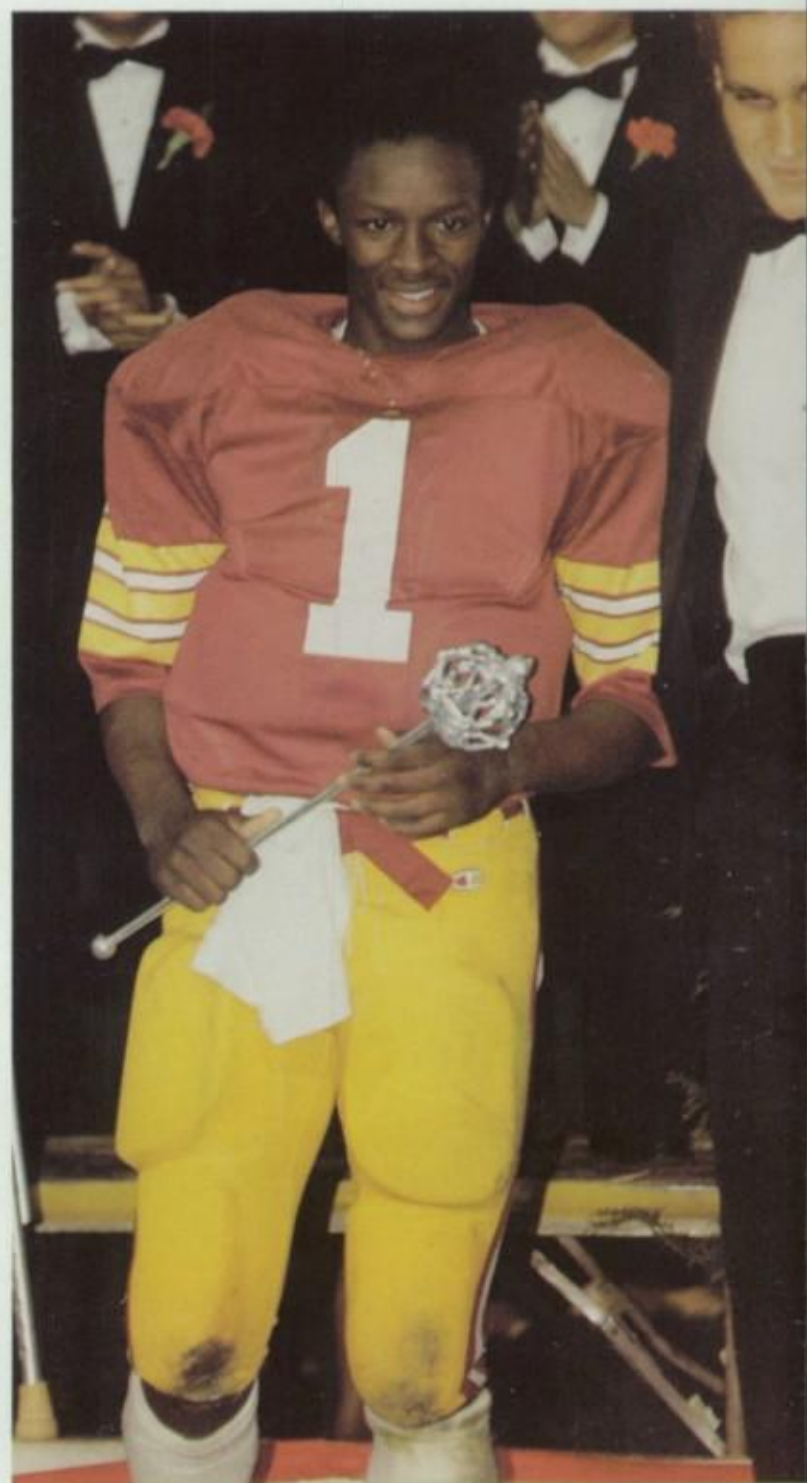

The air was filled with energy and tension as the Bronco crowd piled into the bleachers before the Homecoming game against the Antioch Panthers. Expectations of the game and the crowning were mixed, but each person hoped that the crowning of the 1984 Homecoming King and Queen would touch the night with a little magic.

Those hopes were fueled by a close game as the gun sounded at half-time and the anticipation of the Homecoming activities mixed with the murmurs of possible victory electrified the crowd.

The candidates filed onto the platform as the over capacity crowd buzzed with speculation. The girls in their evening gowns, the flowers, the nervousness of the guys in their tuxedos or uniforms added to the aura of fantasy. Then, the magic moment was upon them as Amy Lagao and Shawn White were announced 1984 Homecoming Queen and King. The expectation turned to an explosion of applause and cheers as Amy and Shawn accepted the crown and scepter, sharing their special, magical moment of honor.

But the night's magic was not over for Shawn. In the first seconds of the game's second half, Shawn was dancing in the end zone after a long run following a pass reception. Mike Connors later proved that the magic was all Northgate's as he ran an interception over 90 yards, securing a Northgate upset. The night can best be summed up by one student who emphatically stated, "It was the best game I ever saw! It just blew me away!"

1. Amy Lagao receives congratulations from friends. 2. 1984 Homecoming King, Shawn White, accepts the king's scepter. 3. Shawn White acknowledges applause from other Homecoming candidates. 4. Amy Lagao is ecstatic as she receives the bouquet of roses. 5. King Shawn and Queen Amy share their special crowning moment. 6. A Royal Kiss.

CINDERELLA TO A GANGSTERS SPIRIT WEEK MAGIC

It all started out innocently enough; the Sophomores echanted the student body on Monday, impersonating the endearing folks found in our childhood storybooks: Cinderella, Alice in Wonderland, and Huck Finn. Tuesday brought Freshmen letting out war whoops as the Indians stalked the halls with cowboys close on their heels. Wednesday saw Juniors disguised as combatants, wearing army fatigues with machine guns slung over their shoulders mingling with flower children. Steely-eyed gangsters flirted with brightly clothed flappers as mobsters stormed into the Speakeasy on Thursday. Capping the wild week brilliant crimson and gold were worn by all on Friday, reflecting the student body's preparation to fight for a victory at the Homecoming game that night.

NIGHT RALLY TO REMEMBER

Northgate's First Night Rally Unifies School

Northgate spirit was at its finest for the first annual spirit week night rally. It was an exceptional turn-out; the feeling of comraderie among the students and individual classes was heart warming.

The evening began with slides of campus life which was followed by a make-shift class competition. Shawn Gallager began the set with his rendition of "Hello" by The Cars. Next, Gerald Abele pounded out "On the Dark Side" by John Cafferty and the Beaver Brown Band. The highlight of the evening was the now legendary "Shout", performed by Steve Moylan, backed by Dave Bruzzone, Steve Chu, Chris Hill, Mike Yakel and Mike Duff.

Another crowd pleaser, although it may have crushed the freshmen, was the Senior Girls' version of "Starlight" by Madonna. Suzanne Forester, Julie Baak, Denise Rader, and Karen Gray were decked out in complete Madonna outfits, making a sexy mockery of the freshmen craze.

The cheerleaders performed at their finest, leading a responsive and enthusiastic crowd, ending an energetic and spirited night.

SENIORS PICNIC AT TURTLE ROCK RANCH

On a sunny September Monday, the senior class boarded yellow school buses and headed out for a day of fun known as "The Senior Picnic."

After the short ride to Turtle Rock Ranch, the volleyball and football games began, highlighted by an all-girl tackle football game.

The end of the athletic events brought about the beginning of the typical picnic lunch consisting of hot dogs, macaroni salad, potatoe chips and orange drink.

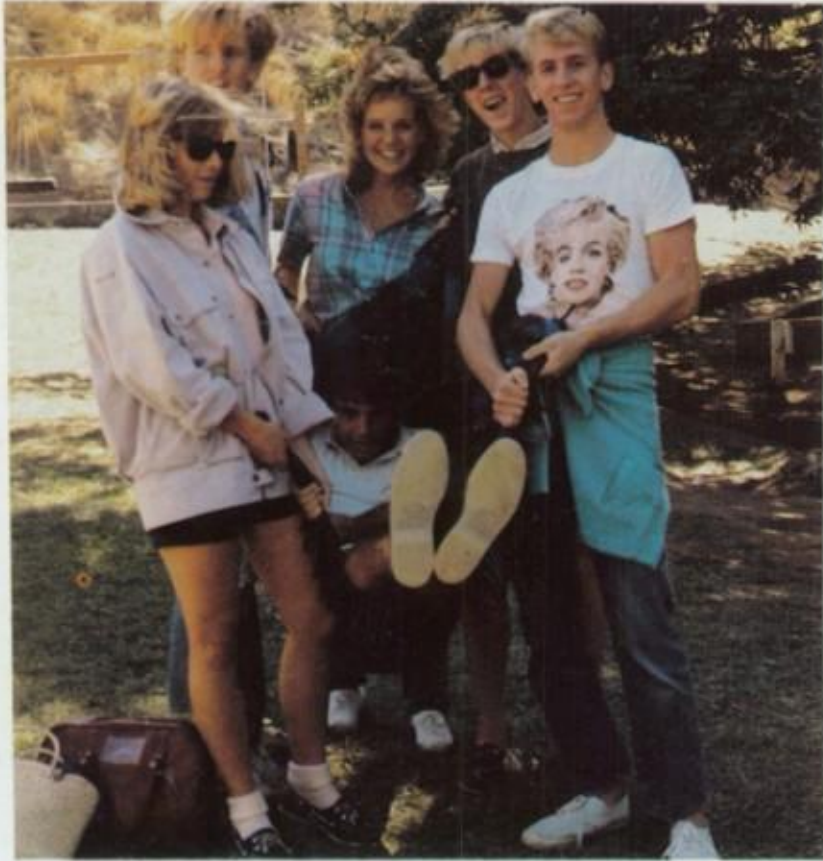

After lunch, the seniors enjoyed ping-pong, frisbee, and soccer. Several groups participated in the annual human pyramid contest while a few other brave souls ventured into the swimming pool.

By 1:00 p.m., the buses were loading up for the return trip. Most seniors enjoyed spending the day together outside the walls of Northgate.

BRONCO BAND MARCHES ONWARD

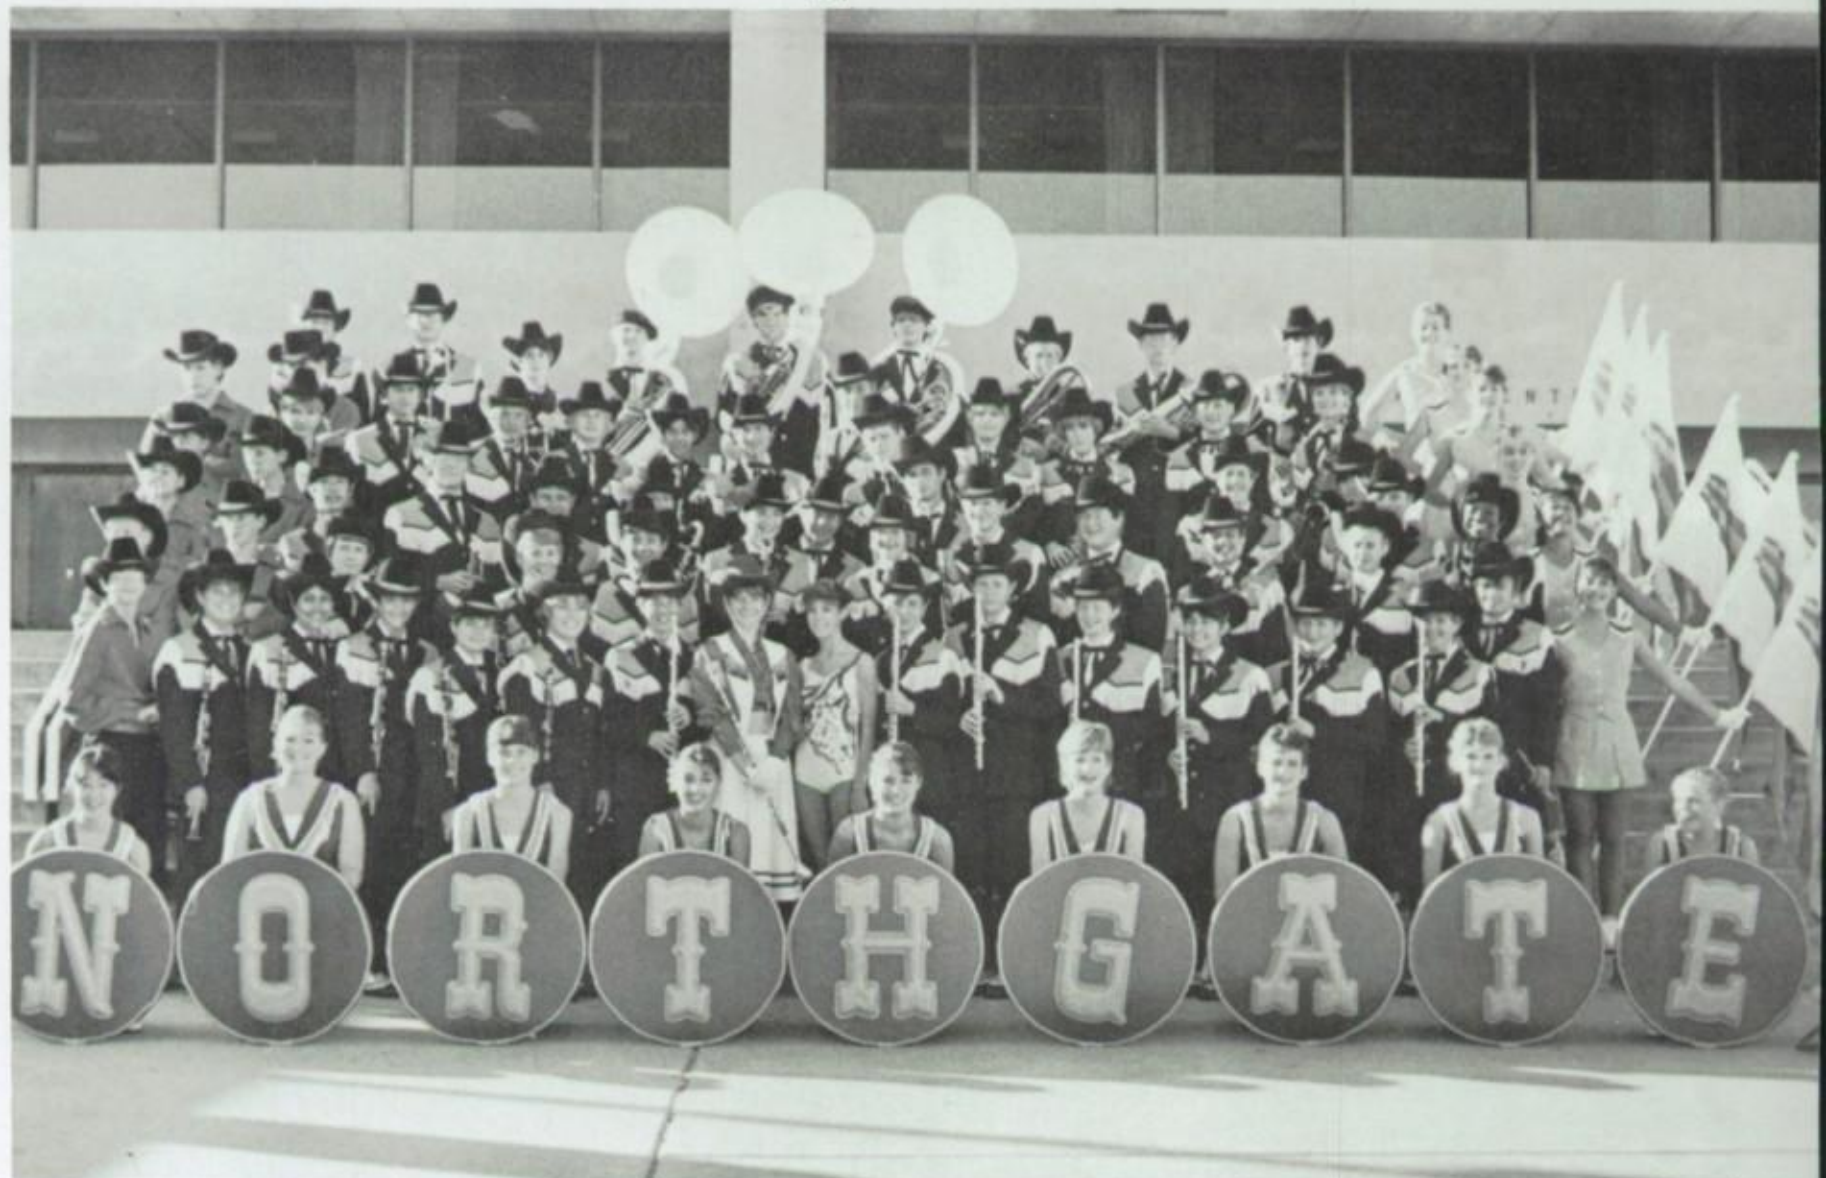

Have you ever thought about what goes into marching in a fieldshow or a parade? If you think it's easy, you're wrong! Since there were a lot of home football games, the marching band had only three days to memorize music and learn formations.

While the band is out on the field marching, the members all have to make sure they're marching at twenty-two-and-a-half-inch step size, stopping, turning and marking time when they should, and playing the music correctly.

Besides field shows, this year the marching band also marched in the Walnut Festival Parade, Concord Band Review, Cal Band Day, The East/West Shrine game, and Santa Cruz Band Review. They placed second in "A" division at Santa Cruz.

IGNATZ TINGLEGRITT IS ALIVE IN THE JAZZ BAND

Northgate's Jazz band kept busy this year. They were called upon to play at assemblies and often even private performances for Mrs. Lisle and Mr. Hansen. They played at a fall dinner dance for the Booster Club. They also played at Northgate's winter concert, which was televised locally.

The band performed at the Northgate area Band festival. They played at the spring concert. In addition to all this performing, the jazz band had to devote time to keeping Ignatz Tinglegritt alive and well. Ignatz is the drive and dedication living in musicians hearts. The members of the jazz band obviously got on his good s side.

SYMPHONIC WIND ENSEMBLE COMPETES LOCALLY

Symphonic Wind Ensemble is made up of many of Northgate's finest musicians. They perform many difficult classical pieces written for large ensembles.

Symphonic Wind Ensemble performed at the DVC Fall Concert and Northgate's locally televised winter concert.

They also took part in Northgate's Area Band Festival. They pleased audiences wherever they played, including Northgate's Spring Concert and CMEA Bay Area Festival, where they competed against many other good bands from the area.

CONCERT CHOIR HITS THE HIGH NOTES

Concert Choir is Northgate's oldest choral group. It's an ensemble which performs music written for a large mixed-voice choir.

The members of the choir study the technical aspect of music, such as vocal tone and reading music. The students enjoy rehearsing and performing for school concerts and especially preparing and performing Musical America XII.

MADRIGALS BRING MAGIC TO NORTHGATE

The Northgate Madrigals is a choral group first formed as an extra-curricular activity. The Madrigals are selected by private audition. The students strive for outstanding accomplishment in repertoire, technique, and staging.

The Madrigals perform an advanced level choral literature in the most artistic manner possible. They performed on campus in the school concerts, Musical America XII. This year's spring tour of southern California at Disneyland, includes a special performance providing the group a chance to share their talents with a large familiar audience, in a magical land where dreams come true.

PRODUCTION WORKSHOP: A BIT OF HOLLYWOOD

Production workshop produced a comedy and a serious play this year. The students learned acting and technical skills through their participation in these productions.

Between major plays, students either directed or acted in Shakespearean scenes. These scenes provide opportunities for them to act in roles they would not normally get a chance to perform. They also performed in one act plays.

Mr. De Reix hopes that after participating in Production Workshop, the students will know what it takes to successfully produce a play, including lightning and scenery design.

DRAMA STUDENTS ACT THE PART

This year's Drama Class worked on learning the technical aspects of Theatre, such as scenery and lighting. They also worked in their acting skills through performing for their class and other students.

The Drama Class acted in small skits Mr. De Reix calls "soap operas" which they wrote by themselves. The class also produced "Children's Theatre" for elementary school kids in the area.

All the Right Moves '85

Expression
through dance
is emotion in motion,
letting your feelings flow
with the music
into a different world.
The music sets the mood
the body hits every beat.
Through sharp movements and flowing pirouettes
the body is able to evoke emotions
without words.
The mood is set,
with the stretch of hand,
that reaches out
and touches the heart.
Communicated,
through the grace of the dancer,
are truth
and light;
they flow from one soul
to a another,
inspired by a single note.
Expression
through dance
sets the emotions in motion.

The 1984-85 school year was filled with a variety of activities for Northgate students. From rallies and dances to drama and clubs, there was something for everybody and almost every interest. These pages are dedicated to those who chose to become involved in the activities available, and who experienced the fun of being an active part of Northgate.

FRENCH CLUB = C'EST MAGNIFIQUE

The French club consists of those who share the common interest of studying the most beautiful and romantic language in the world. Kristan Mayer, President, Stephanie Hallet, Vice President, and Gil Vogel, Secretary/Treasure, feel that each individual in the club is different, yet each shares a common interest in the French culture.

The members participated in a tri-club competition, sponsored by the English club, and also attended a French Film Festival. Fundraisers this year included selling Toberlone, a delicious chocolate candy.

SPANISH/AMIGOS CLUB HELP NEEDY

This year's Spanish Club was formed for the purpose of learning about Latin American Culture.

The Amigos Club is an extension of "Los Amigos de las Americas," a volunteer organization in which the participants provide better training for better health practices in underprivileged areas of Latin America.

The two clubs were merged with the help of Tony Martinez, Advisor; Ellen Kaye and Kacey Smith, co-presidents; Renee Faust, Susie Lookyear, V.P.'s and Adina Ben Zeev, Treasurer.

Amigos has been active all year. Some of their activities were selling grapefruit as a fund raiser and attending Spanish sessions once a week through the year.

The Spanish/Amigos Club leaders feel that this is an excellent organization to be proud of. They send volunteers to Mexico, Costa Rica, South America, and the Dominican Republic to do health work. Overall, the Spanish Club is a great club to join for cultural benefits.

BBC-AND THATS NOT THE BRITISH BROADCASTING COMPANY

The BBC consists of a group of friends interested in putting some pride back into Northgate. These spirited seniors were tired of seeing the crowds, over the past couple of years, sitting on their duffs and quiet at the football, volleyball, and basketball games. They took it upon themselves to, along with the cheerleaders, entice the crowd into not only enjoying the game more fully, but into giving greater support to their teams. They're engaged in such activities as selecting the "cheerleaders of the week," becoming members of the Fibonacci Society, and singing the Olympia "artesian" song at the football games. These seven Seniors, along with their good friends, K.M., L.M., H.W., and B.W., have without a doubt, made their Senior year the best it could be.

NGTV SPREADS THE NEWS

Northgate has its own television station, Northgate Television, or as it is commonly known, NGTV.

Talented kids from all classes come together to create a television show that is actually aired on local television. This creative group is under the leadership of Ronn Elzinga, Northgate's own popular English and History teacher.

NGTV is aired on channel 13 Thursday at 3:45. After writing the scripts, blocking the sets, setting up the cameras, and finally shooting the show, the NGTV team enjoys seeing the product of their long hours and creative energies.

MATH CLUB SUCCEEDS IN COMPETITION

The Northgate Math Club has quite a reputation to maintain. The club is undefeated in its competitions. These competitions consist of "tests" made up of trick math problems covering all areas of mathematics: algebra, geometry, trigonometry and calculus. The senior team remains undefeated, despite the fact that several of its members have missed competition due to their taking advanced math classes at UC Berkeley.

The Freshmen team is learning with how to deal with the pressures and types of these monthly competitions and is quickly becoming the hope of the future. President Adam Kao feels that the president set in past years will be continued and the Northgate Math Club legacy will live on due to the efforts and successes of members such as Jason Wu, James Yao, and Donald Tsang.

CHESS CLUB MAKES ITS MOVE

The purpose of the Chess Club, outlined by the club president, Jason Wu, is to examine the possible perturbations of, and operations in, a mathematically defined space; usually of dimension two and size eight by eight within which a finite number of elements exist. Each with previously defined operators applicable (such operators to consist of the translation of elements within the space, and the removal of elements from the space). The process is to be guided towards a terminal state in which no further operations are possible, this state to be referred to as either a "stalemate" or a "checkmate", in accordance with previously defined interpretations ... C.S.F. STRIVES FOR ACHIEVEMENT

C.S.F., is a club for students who excell scholastically. As a group, they visit colleges, tutor those who need help in school, and just have fun together. As a rule, C.S.F., is a very large club at Northgate because there are many who are academically motivated. It is a fairly serious club that is a state wide organization. Candy sales are the main fundraisers that C.S.F. participates in. The Club rewards those who have succeeded in school, through honoring them as a Seal Bearer (5 semesters in C.S.F.)

The officers consists of Kristen Mayer-President, James Yao-Vice-President, of tutoring, Dave Birdsall-Vice-President of Activities, and Katy Young-Secretary and Treasurer.

MUTUAL OF OMAHA WILD KINGDOM CLUB

A new club trekked across many a jungle to find Northgate this year. It's called the "Mutual of Omaha Wild Kingdom Club." This club was formed due to "Some divine intervention," headed by Gary MacVicar, Reid Stevens, Tom Camp, Bart Hummer and in the spirit of Marlin Perkins. Some fundraisers include random collections now and again from any one with money.

WAR GAMERS BATTLE TO THE END

The Wargames Club was formed by George Voon (President), Cary Cheng (Vice-President), Doug Plazak (Secretary), Peter Uzelak, and Ron Alzinga (advisor). The reason that Wargames was formed is to get different people together and challenge their minds by recreating military simulations.

Even though this club has no fundraisers, it is very interesting because it exposes the player to different political and militaristic situations.

ENGLISH CLUB IS A "SMORGASBORD OF FUN"

The Northgate English Club is many things. It allows students to meet under the common interest of English (among other things). The club is large and has a wide variety of people. The club offers activities for everyone willing to participate. For example, there is a newly formed "peer editing" program. This program allows interested people to receive input on their English papers (before they are turned in to their English class) and do the same for others. Of course, all programs in the English Club are voluntary. For the less academic students the English Club offers a variety of social events to relieve the tension and stress built up by classes, such as the world-famous English Club Parties. The English club is a smorgasbord of fun.

FIBONACCI SOCIETY PARTIES ON!

This is the Fibonacci Society's first year as a club at Northgate. The founders of this outrageous club are Sir Ceasar Fibonacci, (the dictator), Kristin Hicks (the loser member), Suzanne Forester (assistant loser member), Andrea Blohm (stupid events coordinator), Corinne Robins (B.S. chairperson) and Kris Babb as the keeper of the beasts.

This club has some crazy activities such as; The Mr. Hansen look alike contest, Bring your mom to school day and Toga day.

These activites provide a break from the normal school activities, as well as providing an outlet for some good clean club fun!

PRODUCTION IS AN EXPERIENCE

Sixth period this year has been exciting and exasperating, frustrating and frantic, crazy and catastrophic, thought-provoking and trying. There were positive people and events as well as the not-so-positive. It's difficult to keep 20 staff members organized and happy, not only with their assignments but with each other. Most of the experience was, if not enjoyable, at least tolerable. I am thankful for the chance to work with some wonderful people and the opportunity to press myself to my fullest potential.

In essence I owe my positive experience to my veteran co-editor, Jennifer. She is the strength through the aggravation, pressure, tears, and feelings of hopelessness and proved that there is something rewarding in producing a yearbook.

It is the positive elements that keep a staff working: the feelings of accomplishment and comraderie that are established and the growth acquired after dealing with non-cooperative, apathetic students and faculty who have not come to appreciate the strength it takes to deal with the production of the book day after day. Perhaps the only way to truly appreciate these things is to join a yearbook staff. But only through dedication and strength can anyone truly survive and prevail.

The experiences and knowledge we've gained about ourselves and others are far more valuable than anything we could have discovered in a classroom. So, for these reasons we complete and mail the last remaining pages with a sense of relief and accomplishment, knowing the memories will be of the greater, better times. — Robyn Ruddy

SENTINEL STAFF RECOGNIZES ITS RESPONSIBILITY

Aggravation, stress, hard work, long hours, frustration, satisfaction, jubilation.

The product of all this is the Sentinel, the Northgate school newspaper. The function is to inform and educate the Northgate community.

The newcomers, although some inexperienced, molded into a functional, operating staff, with a concern to maintain the tradition of excellence associated with the Sentinel. For the past five years, the Sentinel has won the general excellence award at the Mt. Diablo Journalism Conference. A fitting tribute to the hard work put into the paper. The staff was anxious, hopeful, and confident that they would succeed in performing their responsibilities to the community here at Northgate.

SENIOR OFFICERS LEARNING FROM EXPERIENCE

"A lot of people are under the impression that the responsibilities of an office are burdensome, but, as with everything else, it really depends on what you make of it. The job opens up a whole new area and offers a variety of experiences different from those which one would normally have if he were just another student. Sometimes the job gets a little hectic, but after a successful activity, the feeling we get is indescribable. If we fail, well we learn about that also, and that's really the best part of the job, the learning that you get from it." Dean Haraguchi

▲ 1 ▼ 2

Being an officer takes a lot of integrity as well as the ability to get along with others. Throughout the year, you work with the same people constantly and your respect for those people grows and they mean a great deal to you. Together you learn so much about growing up honestly and develop a strong sense of responsibility. Together you work to get everything done just right and when it is done, you turn to your friends and say "thanks."

SOPHOMORE OFFICERS FILLED WITH DETERMINATION

Determination is what it is all about. You need to want success to achieve it. This is what all officers learn throughout their time spent in office. They accept the position knowing it will take a lot of time and energy to get their class united. They learn to present their ideas so no one will cut them down without listening. They bounce back after failure, learn from mistakes and try again.

It's a new beginning at Northgate and the Freshmen officers are probably the first ones to find this out. Coming into a new place and wanting to get their class involved as soon as possible, their spirits are high, full of energy and they are ready to share new ideas. They realize the opportunities are boundless and the chances to be involved are many.

ASB OFFICERS: THE STRENGTH BEHIND THE STUDENTS

Associated Student Body officers perform invaluable services, largely unrecognized by the majority of students. They are at the heart of Northgate, providing, among other things, entertainment relief with assemblies during hectic days, and fund raisers to earn the money fulfilling our budgetary needs. It is difficult to describe the responsibility and pressure the officers have undertaken. However, each wished to express their thoughts or ideas provoked by the past year's events, through a quote which may help reveal a bit about the make-up of the ASB officers.

MOCK CONGRESS: A

Mock Congress has been an annual event for the past nine years. The Congress is put on by the students as a way for them to better understand the procedure of the United States Government.

During this event the teachers step back and let the students run the activities. This gives the students a chance to listen to both sides of the argument and make up their own mind.

Mock Congress brings the Seniors together as a class and lets them enjoy a very educational project.

SIP: HELPING STUDENTS REACH HIGHEST POTENTIAL

School Improvement Program (SIP) is an organization which runs throughout different schools, Northgate being one of the many. The school receives a certain amount of money to be spent only on supplies, needed equipment and personnel to coordinate and run the program.

Each school involved in SIP forms a SITE council which consists of elected and appointed parents, students, teachers and other administration members, including the principal. The SITE Council is responsible for maintaining the school budget.

The goal of SIP is to develop programs which allow students to function at their highest potential in many different areas, from responsibility to individual assessment.

The Student Action Team is part of the SIP program to help prevent abuse of drugs and alcohol. The Student Action Team works with the Parent Action Team to spread the word of the dangers of these chemicals.

This is the second year that a committee of students have been organized to fight the continuing problem of drug and alcohol abuse within our school. The Drug and Alcohol Abuse Committee plans three major activities for the year, a presentation at Foothill Intermediate school in the spring, a meeting with Juniors before the Junior Prom and a talk with Seniors before their Senior Ball. The purpose of these presentations is to make the students more aware of the consequences of using drugs and alcohol.

Our committee continues to grow and student participation is increasingly positive.

A "Booze Buster" decal that urges liquor store customers and merchants to be aware of teen-agers trying to buy alcohol was distributed by Northgate High School parents.

The program sponsored by the Substance Abuse Committee of the Parent Action Team, is part of Northgate's fight against teen-age alcohol use and abuse.

The committee, headed by Linda Giacobazzi and Marlowe Sorensen, is providing parents with information and a course of action to deal with the problem. Currently, thirty parents are actively involved in the program to help reduce teen-age substance abuse.

BRONCOS BEAT ALL ODDS

The first two games of the season showed the players desire to be the best. They accepted the loss of the second game and were determined to be victors from then on. Our varsity football team proceeded to win the following five games which led them to become DVAL champions. The three way tie between Pittsburg, Antioch and Northgate was broken by the flip of a coin which sent our Broncos and Antioch on to the North Coast Championship. Excitement was felt throughout the school as our anxious Broncos prepared for the big game against San Ramon.

Tension built in the stands as the final seconds ended the game with the close score of 7-6, San Ramon's lead. With the clock running down, a come back seemed impossible. Our team gave their best shot but the clock left us with no time for victory. Although the Broncos did not win, the spirit of competition left us with a feeling of magic.

3 Winning isn't everything, but the experience of playing, was a feeling they will not forget. Our Freshmen football team members learned the true meaning of the statement, "—It's not whether you win or lose, but how you play the game." The season was not very favorable for the team. Although they were unvictorious, they gained a sense of both winning and losing, how to play under pressure, and how to play as a team.

The highlight of the season was the game against Concord High. That was the game when it all came together and their hard practice was evident, as they left the field victorious by the score 38 to 8.

Though there were moments of frustration and disappointment, the experience paid off in commraderie and knowledge of the game for next year.

GIRLS FINISH FIRST

Girls' Cross Country team achieved a much deserved winning season for Northgate. The raw will-power and the great physical shape were the keys to the team's success.

The team ran smoothly and was able to defeat the competition at every meet. The team was encouraged by the spectators, which they say was another key to the winning season.

The season ended at the North Coast finals, where we finished a very close second. It was a year of success and pride for these determined young ladies.

BOYS STRIVE TO DO THEIR BEST

"You have to find your stride!"
 "Pace yourself!"
 "Then take it home!"

These are the common terms and phrases you would hear if you were on the cross country team. The dedication, strength and endurance helped the Boys' Cross Country team become a prominent threat to the other teams.

Practicing helped the boys fair well this season. Running up steep hills, through the wet mud, and on the hard, solid asphalt created a strong team that made Northgate proud.

A SMASHING SEASON

The girl's Varsity tennis team this year had a very successful year, with a record of 14 wins and no losses.

The team captain was Karen Timmerman, who, with Audrey Peterman comprised the DVAL doubles team that went to North Coast. The team's success can be related to it's strong unity and dedication, with all of the players supporting and rooting for one another. Even though the team will, be losing several graduating seniors, next years should prove to be just as successful with it's strong and talented underclassmen players.

J.V. TENNIS SLAMS IT HOME

The Northgate Tennis team hit its way to a first place finish in DVAL. The constant practice of hitting forehands, backhands, volleys, and serves, was evident as the girls enjoyed a successful season. MRs. Gusey, the coach of both JV and Varsity teams, deserves much credit in the teams' victorious seasons.

BRONCOS SPIKE OPPONENTS

The JV volleyball team had a extremely successful season this year. After starting the season 5-3 they won 8 games straight and never looked back. The team finished the season 16-5 and had a DVAL record at 10-4. Their team work and determination was the key to their great year. Each player gave her best and made tbs one of the volleyball teams' best years.

VARSITY VOLLEYBALL HAS SMASHING SEASON

Varsity Volleyball had a smashing season this year. The team had a victorious season which landed them at Northcoast. Much dedication and unity among the teammates was the major factor in their success. They could be indentified around school in their gold and red sweatshirts bearing the Northgate insignia.

VARSITY PINS OPPONENTS

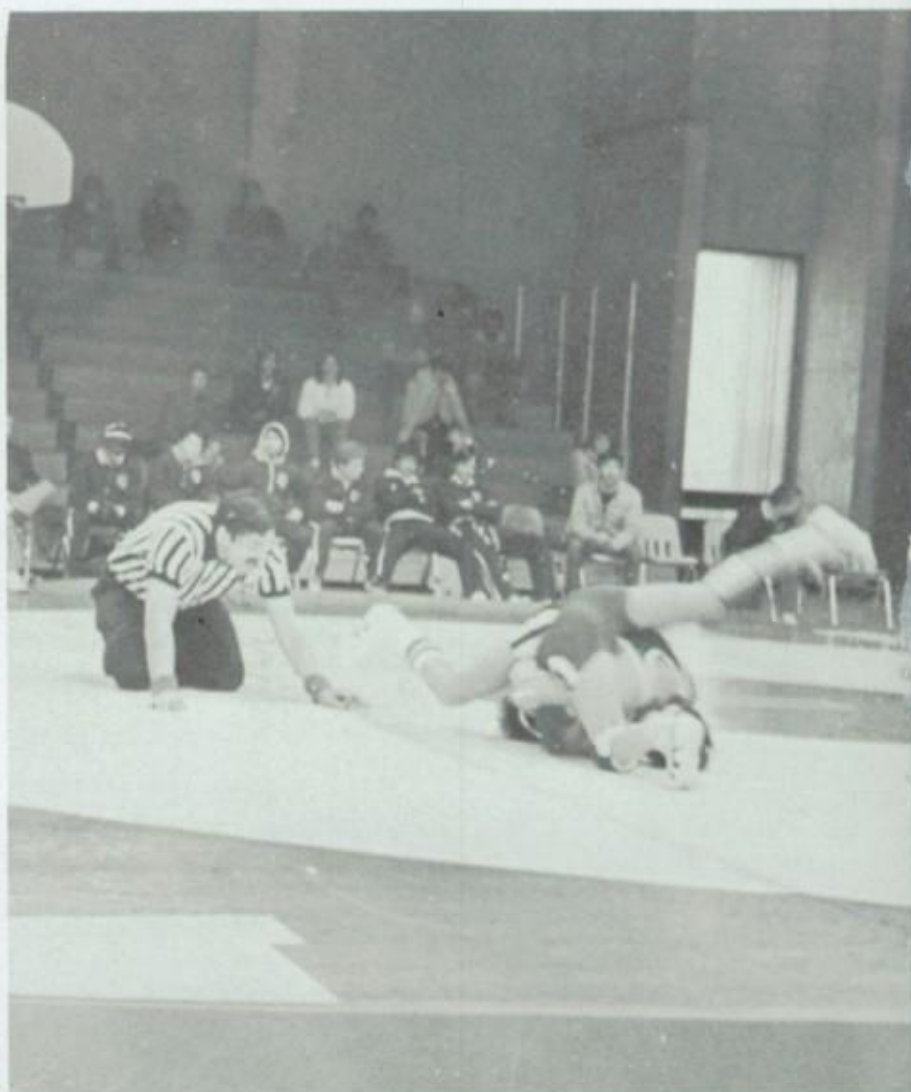

This year's wrestling team led a satisfying season with six of its members representing Northgate at North Coast. These wrestlers include Jimmy Doss, Sean Armstrong, Bill Alpert, Steve Banducci, Bob Agnew and Matt Irvin. The team placed 4th at DVAL, but missed placing 3rd by 1/2 of a point. Overall, the team won 5 games and lost 5 games, proving that dedication and determination can produce a successful season.

JV FOLLOWS FORM

The Junior Varsity Wrestling team had a very strong season this year. Their long hours paid off as they ended up 8-2 in league, and second place in DVAL.

There was one Freshmen and one Frosh/Soph tournament this year in which there were no scores kept. These meets were just for experience, which is what the team got, with eight of its team members going to North Coast. There was a novice tournament at the beginning of the year for all of the wrestlers who had never wrestled before. This year's JV team looks like it will be a very promising varsity team next year.

VAR. BASKETBALL STRUGGLES

The Varsity boy's basketball team had the strength, the power and the expertise of a championship team, but it was not to be this year. Coach Schorder, in his first year of coaching varsity basketball, did a job that deserves much credit.

The hard work and hours of practise by the players were evident in each game, though the team only enjoyed three victories. Despite the low number in the win column, it was a season of development, team work, and spirit.

JV BASKETBALL SHOOTS FOR SUCCESS

The J.V. basketball team worked hard during the season to develop their skills for their future years on the varsity team. The guys played well as a team and this was the key to their success' during the season. The team displayed ability and effort in each of the games. Competitive spirit aided in the teams enthusiasm.

FRESHMEN HOOPSTERS GAIN EXPERIENCE

It was a year of few wins and even fewer fans. Despite the lack of support and recognition, the freshman team continued to work hard and to face its opponents with high energy and high hopes. The players' dedication was always visible on the court, even when the scoreboard was not in Northgate's favor. These young men learned that there is more to athletics than a victorious season. They discovered the value of team work, individual support, and mutual respect for coach and team mates.

It was a year of few wins, but it was also a year of athletic growth and development.

VARSITY GIRLS BASKETBALL JUMPS AHEAD

Nothing shows a team quality more than a superb season, and for the members of the girls Varsity Basketball team is not a dream. Making it to the playoffs this year brought not only the thrill of victory but also the fulfillment of camaraderie. For the team members, the promise of long lasting friendships and the confidence from a winning season will assure a bright future next year for the returning players.

J.V. NETTERS SHOW PROMISE

Fundamentals and basics were highly stressed by the coach this year. These young players aimed their goals towards improving and preparing for varsity action in the future. A total team effort was needed, and the girls learned to work together. By the end of the season they had meshed into a fine J.V. team.

DIVERS TAKE THE PLUNGE

This year's diving team had their hearts and minds set on a winning season, and definitely gained it with their hard work and stamina.

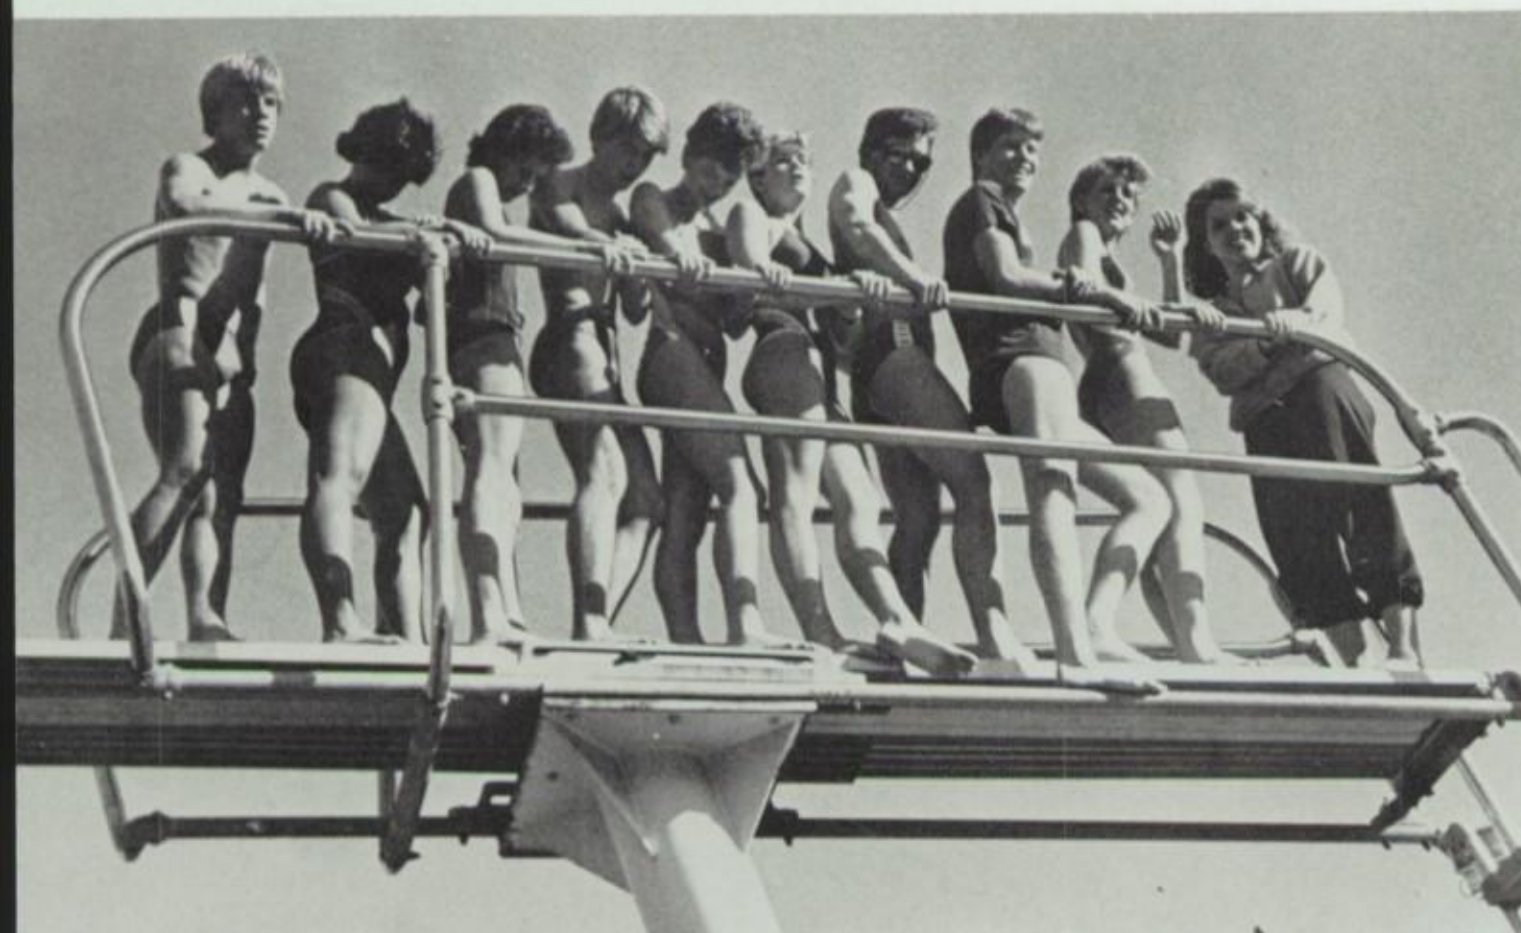

The team spends a big part of the time in training, such as hard vigorous practices at the Heather Farms diving pool, morning and night. As if that wasn't enough, they also lift weights at irregular times of the day. Strengthening their arms and legs, for those, out of this world, acrobatic dives. This team actually gets it together on those high boards, especially when the stands are full of their wild cheering classmates.

This year's Northgate Swim Team has many new members, as well as a new coach. Rob Werner is using his own new techniques to strengthen the team. Along with the new members, the team consists of some A.A.U. and summer league swimmers to give the team extra strength. This fairly large team aims its major goals towards placing in the top three North Coast teams in both the men's and women's divisions.

Hard work and dedication are the main factors needed to achieve these goals. Dedication can be seen every morning at 5:00 am and once again at 2:45 every afternoon at Heather Farms. These swimmers push themselves to their limit and hope to gain more than just tans this season.

VARSITY BASEBALL HITS FOR HOME

After the chilly cheers of football and the suffocating screams of basketball season have died down, all of Northgate gears up for America's favorite past time—baseball. The team can be seen practicing, guided by the able Coach Clark, even in the showers of belated winter storms. Though storms don't stop practice, they were responsible for the cancellation of the team's first game of the season. However, nothing can put a damper on such a spirited team as it experienced nothing but success.

JV BASEBALL SWINGS INTO ACTION

The junior varsity baseball team's goal was to play to the best of the players' combined abilities. The team as a whole was very strong, with outstanding individual efforts being turned in by pitchers Sean Devereaux and Mike Martinez.

Tough competition was provided by several teams in the league, but the team maintained its high spirits which led to a winning season.

J.V. SOFTBALL ROUNDS THE BASES.

This year's J.V. Softball team is coached by Julie Keenan, P.E. and health teacher at Crondoleit High School. The team got off to a great start, depending on some talented freshmen thanks to Walnut Creek Little league, who's program has enhanced Northgate Softball quite a bit. Practice was everyday from 3:00 to 5:30 and games twice a week. We should all admire the magic that the J.V. Softball squad brought to the spring sport season.

BRONCOS ACE OPPONENTS

The boy's varsity tennis team followed its usual path in capturing first place in DVAL. At the beginning of the season, approximately sixty people tried out for the team; however, only the top fifteen players got the chance to play on the varsity squad. Among the top members of the team were: Duncan Love, Rob Perkins, Brett Korsgaard, Curtis Berryen, and Joe McDonough. The hard work put in by these five and the rest of the varsity should assure many more winning years to come.

FACULTY

William Hansen
Principal

MR. HANSEN IS THE LEADER OF THE BRONCO PACK

Mr. William Hansen has been the man at the top of Northgate's Administration since its doors opened ten years ago. He has utilized his previous years of experience as a principal at the now extinct Pleasant Hill High School and a Vice-Principal at Ygnacio Valley to create a sense of confidence in his ability to handle the pressures and responsibilities of his position.

Mr. Hansen spends many hours meeting with various levels of personnel involved in education, ranging from local and state education politicians at seminars on the college requirements, to students and parents at ASB meetings or Parent Association meetings regarding Northgate activities. He supports all areas of Northgate's campus life, and can be seen at almost every sporting event or dance, visiting classrooms, roaming the halls or socializing at lunch or brunch.

Mr. Hansen's dedication to fine education has led Northgate to a respected position among the leading scholastic high schools in Northern California. His visibility and concern for what is best for Northgate make him a respected and effective administrator.

THE THREE NUMBER TWO MEN

The job of Vice-Principal requires many talents. Gomer Arnold and Bob Daugherty's main responsibilities are discipline, but they can be seen handling such matters as school maintenance, crowd control, and supply dispensing.

Mr. Russon, on the otherhand, has his own problems to deal with every day. As the curriculum V.P., he must deal with the master schedule, the faculty-student ratio, and all the paperwork-regarding Northgate's classes, subjects taught, and student performance.

These three men are surely deserving of admiration and appreciation.

THE KEEPERS OF CREDITS

Sal Costanza

The students of Northgate are very fortunate to have such dedicated counselors available; people who are more than willing to help. The counselors job is centered around school credits and making sure the students have the amount needed to graduate as well as setting seniors on the right track towards college by helping them decide which one is best.

The counselors are more than just academic advisers. They also respond to students' needs as friends. Many students feel comfortable coming to the counselors with personal problems as well as academic. The counselors provide an outside listener who is not a threat to the student.

SUPERVISORS SEE ALL

It's lunch time and you're already to go — you have it all planned out. It's Harva's Frozen stand for Dutch Chocolate Frozen Yogurt and back before the 5th period passing bell rings. You burst out the front doors and hop in your car, only to be greeted by — you guessed it — the campus supervisor.

The tardy bell rang and you're late for your history class. It's another period in the library, if you can make it. You turn the corner and ... there she is — the campus supervisor.

Yes, these women seem to always be around just when you're hoping no one is watching, but that is their job.

The campus supervisors keep law and order in the halls during class time and enforce the posted campus rule during lunch. It's a tough and thankless job, but someone has to do it!

"I have taught levels one through three of German at Northgate since 1974. This is my thirteenth year with this school district and I'm hoping it will be a great year," says Neanna Miles. "I enjoy teaching and try to show my love for Germany and its language to my students. When I'm not teaching, I'm busy with two small children or working at home. I love music and enjoy painting, reading, sewing, swimming, and spending time outdoors at the ocean and in the mountains."

Four years ago a friend told E.D. White, success is reaching the goals in life you set for yourself. "I have set goals in five areas," says White. "They include family, spiritual, social, career, and health. I especially like aerobics, fishing, geneology, family outings, and summer travel. I also enjoy training people to translate old Spanish. Many of my interests require extra regulating businesses that allow me to be involved in these various activities."

SCIENCE BUBBLES UP INTEREST

The time is 7:30 in the morning the dark rooms of the science department are quiet now, but after the 8:00 bell rings, these rooms will be bustling with activity. The department offers a myriad of subjects ranging from Chemistry to Physiology to Vertebrate Zoology. In these subjects, we learn lessons which help us better understand the world around us.

We explore the wonders of the human body, the world of animals, the principles behind chemical reactions, and the dynamic laws of physics. The first bell sounds, and the waves of students begin to fill these rooms, to begin another day in which many fascinating facts will be discovered.

SOCIAL STUDIES PROVIDES CULTURAL

"Social Studies is the part of a school curriculum that includes history, civics, and other social sciences."

Northgate's social studies classes, though bound by the confines of the subject matter, are as unique as the person who teaches it. Each teacher brings a special interest or unusual background into the classroom that adds a personal flavor to the subject he or she teaches.

Santo Alioto is "quite the actor." He is often involved in local theater projects. Ronn Elzinger and Bob Johnson are very much into comic book collecting. Tom Anderson is the faculty 'biking' champion. He enjoys riding great distances on his bike. Susan Hyde's major interests lie in computers, sailing and skiing. Susan Couch is known for being the 'mentor' teacher and a "creative thinker". She is always bringing new approaches to teaching to her classroom. Susan Seagraves is the new teacher on the block, replacing Mrs. Cusack. Nils Schroder moonlights as Northgate's head basketball coach. Grace Townley enjoys golfing, and is a lover of old cabins. Ted Tellian is our "Mr. Versatile!" He is also known as "the coach for all seasons."

These teachers create an original environment for students that not only provides knowledge of the past and present in history, but also gives the student a chance to enjoy what he or she is learning.

MATH EQUATES SUCCESS

Math is a tool, often called the Language of Science. This leads the math teachers into teaching a type of foreign language to many students, thus creating a difficult and often unappreciated job.

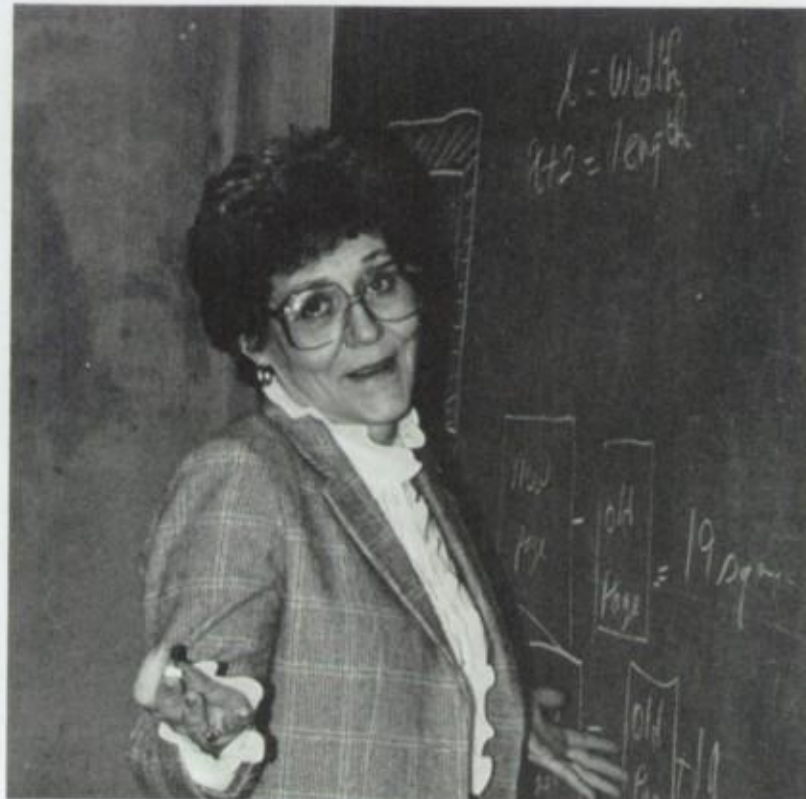

This year the department faced this challenge with a new teacher, as Mrs. Peggy Reinhardt joined Northgate from Foothill Intermediate School. She was certainly a welcomed and well-qualified addition to the staff.

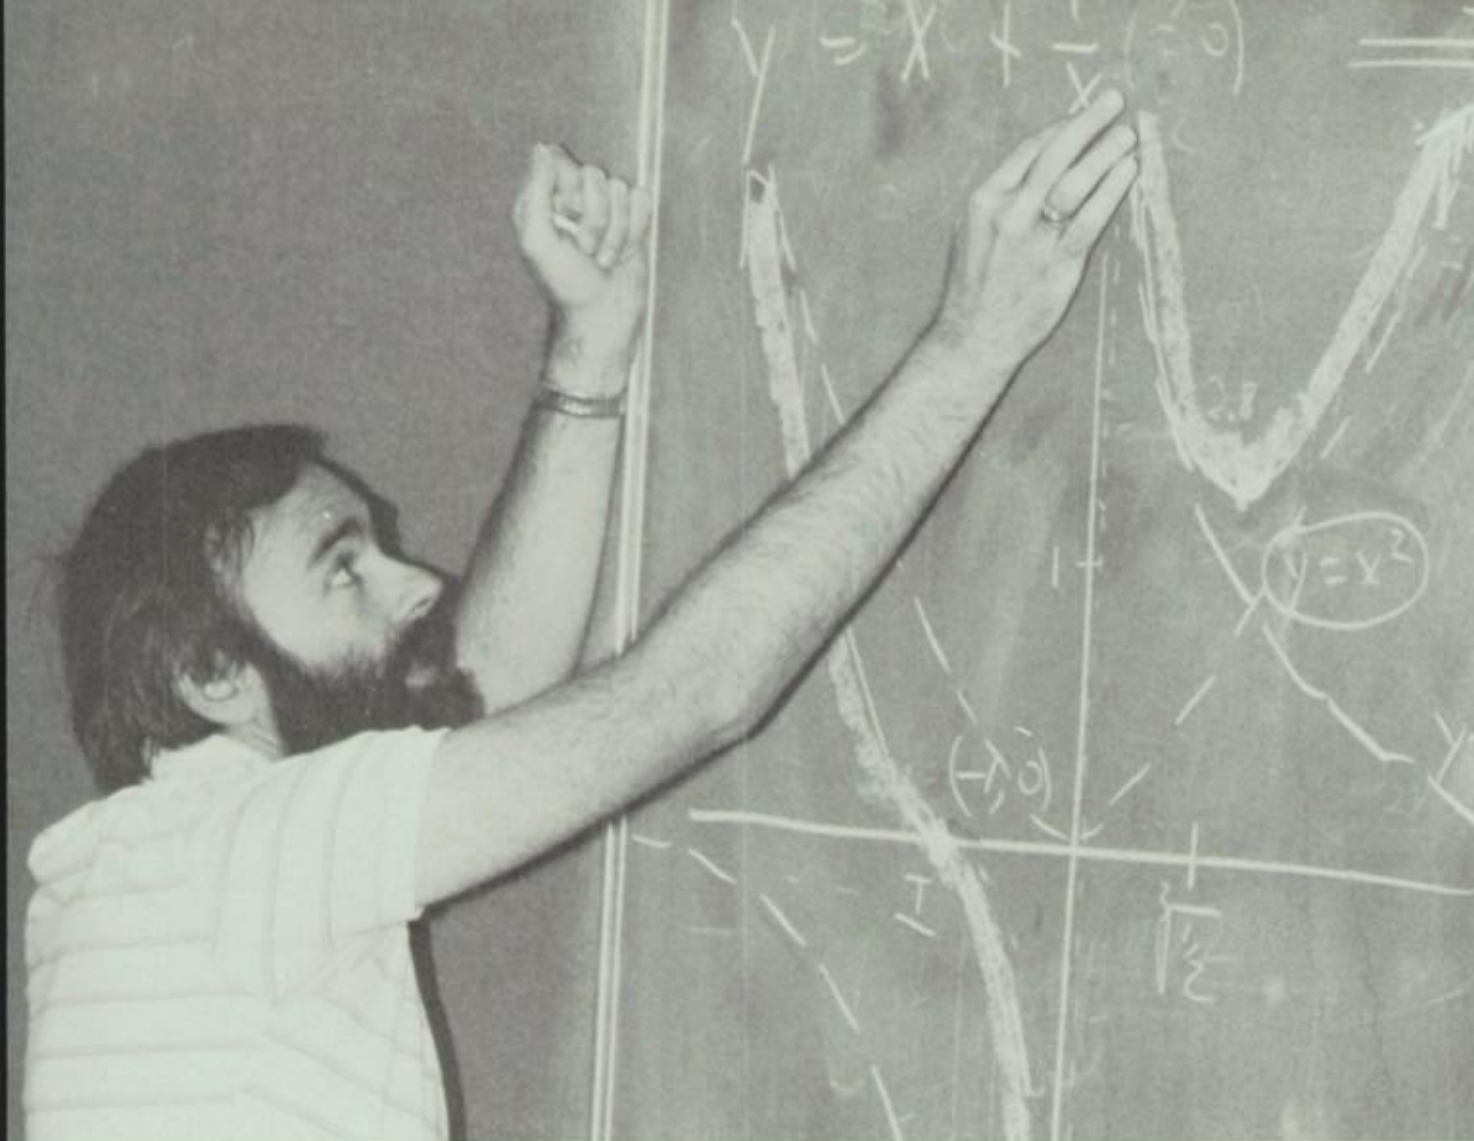

Two teachers were selected for the district's Mentor Teacher Program, namely Bev Hodge and John Gishe. They were model teachers for college students interested in becoming math teachers. This was quite an honor and reflects on the quality of instruction that students receive in math at Northgate.

Math teachers are also "regular" people and have many hobbies, activities and interests. Jim Riso acts as a tax consultant during the income tax season. Bev Hodge is the Study Center coordinator for the School Improvement Program at Northgate and plays the horses when time and money avail themselves. Ed Arbuckle is an avid fisherman and gentleman farmer. He also has an extensive cacti garden and teaches in the Extended Day Program along with Donna Stevens and John Gishe at LMC and DVC. Chuck Clare can also be found at the local city colleges when not officiating high school sports, golfing, or tending his prize-winning chrysanthemums.

All these teachers are very active in the raising of their families and prove there is life beyond the classroom, even for teachers.

RESOURCE AIDS IN ALL AREAS

Resource classes are part of the MDUSD Special Education Program. Students are evaluated and if they meet the district guidelines may be placed in Special Education. Assistance in English, math, history, government, science, computers, safety education and business can be provided. Here at Northgate, classes are offered 5 periods a day.

This school year, Susan Bodine, is the Resource Specialist. She has taught special education classes in the Mt. Diablo district since 1975 at all 3 levels — elementary, intermediate, and high school. Assisting in the classroom is Karolin Boone, who taught in the elementary schools in Illinois and Connecticut, and in the Mt. Diablo district since 1977.

OWE EXPERIENCE FOR THE FUTURE

During the 1984-85 school year 125 students were enrolled in one or two periods of related instruction and on-the-job training. Seminars are held during the A period on the instructional themes of work orientation, career planning, economics and job finding skills.

Students use community resources for learning. Real jobs in sales, clerical, laboratory, computer, automotive service, food preparation, and recreation employment provide valuable experience in the "real world."

The Northgate work experience education program is recognized state-wide for its high program standards and achievement.

STUDENTS GET DOWN TO BUSINESS

The three business courses offered are Accounting, Business Math and Typing. Unfortunately, due to a budget cut back the second half of the Typing course, Typing IIB, was eliminated this year. However, Typing IA introduces students to the basic keyboard, and moves into the development of speed and accuracy. The correct format for business and personal letters, in addition to essays and reports, is also taught. Those students in Will Miller's classes obtain the additional benefit of "amusing" jokes and puns to add a bit of humor and variety to the learning process.

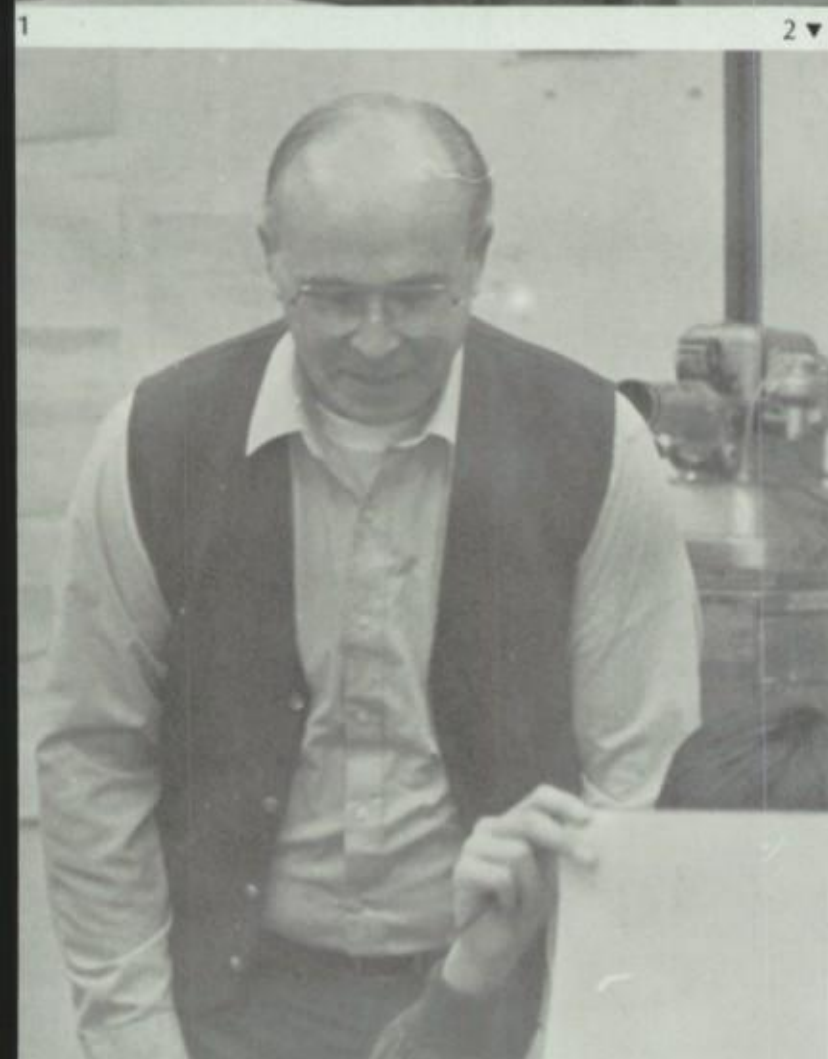

Accounting and Business Math involve students working with figures. Various transactions and types of statements involving financial matters are learned. Although students completing these courses may not be quite prepared for the big business and banking worlds of IBM or Merrill Lynch, they have a good head start!

PERFORMING ARTS LOOKS FOR FAME

The performing arts department at Northgate is made up of a lot of hard-working, talented students. The goals of the department are to involve as many students as possible in various performances at Northgate.

Mr. Chris Piazza coordinates the vocal groups. Concert Choir is a large mixed voice group that performs campus concerts. The Madrigals are a select group of singers who perform in various concerts around the community, and make a musical tour of Southern California.

Mr. Jack DeRieux heads the drama classes of the performing arts department. He gets students involved in all aspects of a drama producing, including the technical, behind-the-scenes roles.

H.T. Payne is, the director of all the instrumental ensembles. Through his knowledge and guidance students are led through the various techniques of playing in concert band, jazz band or wind ensemble. He is also the master-mind behind the halftime shows at the football games.

The entire performing arts department offers classes that allow students to explore and express the creative talents that they possess, and present Northgate's community with their combined talents in the spring show: Musical America.

ART CREATES INTEREST

In recent years we have seen increased awareness of the importance of educating both halves of the brain — not only the rational, logical, left side developed in math and science, but also the creative, intuitive right side developed in Art and the Humanities.

In our Art program we ask students to listen and encourage their image-making and intuitive side, and then we work to execute their ideas in a satisfactory way.

Beginning Arts and Crafts and Advanced Art are taught by Mrs. Snowden, who graduated from California College of Arts and Crafts, and did her English training at U.C. Berkeley. She enjoys printmaking, paper-making, reading books, and going to the theatre, as well as being a pushover for anything that purrs.

Nicky Royce, who teaches Ceramics, is also a production potter and designer of childrens' stickers in her free time. She enjoys doing many forms of crafts, as well as hiking, folk-dancing, and would travel if she could only afford it.

TEACHING TOOLS OF THE TRADE

Industrial Education provides Northgate with valuable diversity. Industrial Education electives offer students opportunities to enjoy learning a technical skill with proportionate increase in manual dexterity. The classes found in Industrial Education: auto, drafting, wood, photo and graphics, provide marketable skills that can be applied outside the scholastic environment.

HOME ECONOMICS: MORE THAN FOOD

Home economics deals with the realities of life beyond the classroom. The things one learns last a lifetime and can often improve the quality of one's life due to increased emphasis on nutrition, child rearing, social sex roles and such.

Ms. Deanna Doering is Northgates home economics teacher. She brings a variety of exciting personal experiences to her teaching. She enjoys flea markets and auctions, where she finds items for her collectables and antique business. She travels as much as possible and even hitchhiked around the world twice.

Ms. Doering has no children, but does have a squirrel, three cats, three opossums and two raccoons.

Deanna Doering

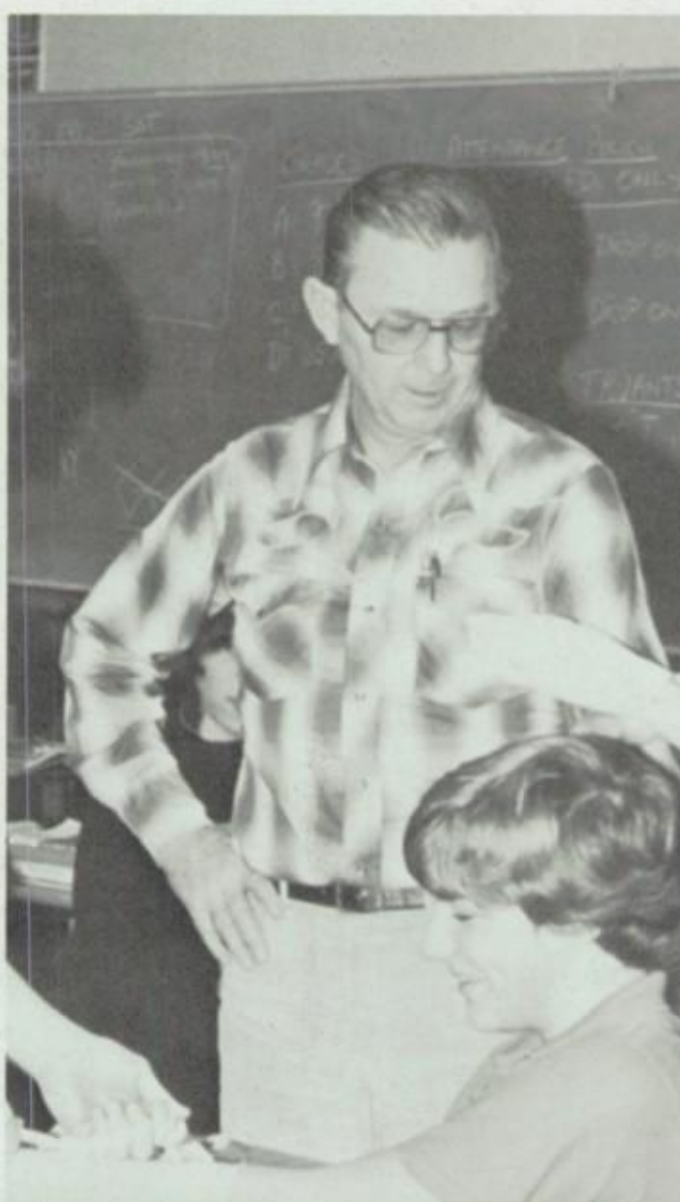

1. No, I'm not going to change your grade because you gave me an apple-Mrs. Doering.

DRIVERS ED. TEACHES SAFETY

The Safety Education Program is a valuable course to each and every student. In the class, students start by learning the rules of the road. After being taught the rules in the classroom, each student is given the opportunity to apply those rules in a real driving situation.

Along with learning the rules of the road, students end the semester class by learning emergency medical care.

Through the combination of driving skills and emergency treatment, perhaps students are better prepared for all driving situations.

Jim Schafer

P.E. DEPARTMENT: A TEAM EFFORT

Probably the most significant development in the Physical Education curriculum has been the change in the student selection of activities. Previously, the students selected the next activity at the end of each individual unit. They now select a block of four or five given activities involving a specific instructor. They remain in that activity for the semester. This has led to greater student accountability as well as providing a more efficient climate in the presentation of the total program.

Students and teachers struggle with the problem of inadequate facilities, but both maintain an effort to achieve and perform under these conditions. This creates a necessary attitude of working together, bringing about positive results.

SHHH . . . PEOPLE STUDYING!

The library: the place students kick back and relax, socialize and catch up on the late news. And for some, it is a place for studying. Occasionally, students spend class time in the library completing various projects including term papers, essays or other research assignments. With a little time and investigation, students can discover a wealth of information within the shelves and learn to appreciate the benefits it has to offer.

1. What?! I have to sign in? I'm the librarian! 2. Thank you for having a pass. 3. Give my books back or you're on the six year plan.

CENTER AIDS STUDIES

Through either peer tutoring or adult tutoring, a student may receive help in any class he may be having difficulties with. Additional aid is given to those needing help in passing the Competency test.

The Study Center also supplies such supplemental materials as computers and software, typewriters, earphones, and an area to duplicate foreign language tapes. Many students have discovered the benefits of the various study skills classes offered, in addition to nearly the only tranquil place on campus to get some work done.

TUDENTS PLAN THEIR FUTURES

The Career Center houses and maintains student career information. The Career Center Technician aids students in search of financial aid and college information, in addition to arranging college visitations, speakers from colleges and career nights. Shortly, a new Guidance Information computerized system will be utilized. This center is beneficial to every student at one point in his or her high school career.

Nurse Masters Medicine

Mrs. Nancy Riese is Northgate's school nurse, and can be found in her office Monday through Wednesday. She has been working here part time while finishing her Master's degree at Berkeley.

Her job is a difficult one, as she is responsible for the health of all the students here.

She must treat all ailments, ranging from major injuries to headaches, as well as recommending those who have been out of school with either prolonged or contagious illnesses. We appreciate her service and knowledge!

"You're a quart low." - Mrs. Riese and student.

Cafeteria Staff Offers Salad Bar And Zombies

Northgate is lucky to have a fine cafeteria staff. These women come to work every morning and begin preparing the meals of the day as well as getting the brunch food ready for those who either need a first breakfast or just some reinforcement before lunch.

After these ladies meet the needs at brunch, they have just an hour and twenty minutes to recover and be prepared for the demands of those buying lunch. In that short time they prepare hot lunches including hamburgers, french fries, burritos, pizza, and the infamous zombies. A salad bar, milkshakes and other ice cream are also available.

Both hot and cold food was a glad change from that in the vending machines, and alot more healthy!

The ladies of lunch and brunch; lt. to rt.: Ann Legge, Gloria Case, Pat Kallas, Pat Pillitier, Jane Nemuria, Janet Neale, and Delores Walker.

CUSTODIANS KEEP NORTHGATE SHINING

There is a group of men working at Northgate that are here long before anyone else arrives in the morning and who are here long after everyone else is gone. These men spend their hours keeping the school facilities looking their best. They are our custodians — the guardians of Northgate. Every classroom is clean each morning the halls are cleared of the scattered debris, the gym and locker rooms are swept of the day's dust and made ready for the next set of activities, and each office is made ready for a new work day by the hard work and meticulous care of these men. Thanks to them, Northgate is a place we can all be proud of.

NORTHGATE SECRETARIES ARE

Webster's New World Dictionary refers to a "secretary" as one employed to handle correspondence and manage routine and detailed work.

Being a secretary at Northgate is a little different than what Webster describes. Working at Northgate is definitely unique and there is something different going on each and every minute of each and every day — surely not routine.

Why a secretary at Northgate? We like kids — we wouldn't be here if we didn't. It is so gratifying to see you students arrive as freshmen and to watch you grow into responsible young adults. We enjoy following you through these years of studies, sports, school activities and honors — then graduation; a happy day for you; a happy, but sentimental, day for us.

We each have a job to do to help you through those years with activities, scheduling you into classes, seeing that your grades are recorded, that the work is done for your college recommendations and scholarships, helping you to find your way and to be a grown-up person.

Being a secretary at Northgate is more than typing a paper or answering the phone — we are your friend — you are our purpose here!! — The Secretarial Staff.

SENIORS

A NIGHT OF ENTERTAINMENT

This year's Senior Banquet was an event which brought unity to the class of '85. The evening of entertainment began with awards being presented to "outstanding" members of the class, such as, Biggest Flirt, Class Clown, Most Likely to Succeed on Broadway, and of course, Best Buns in 501's.

The night moved rapidly along with Seniors using their talents to keep the rest of the class amused. The whole evening was one of camaraderie and spirit which the Senior class will always remember.

BRIAN-

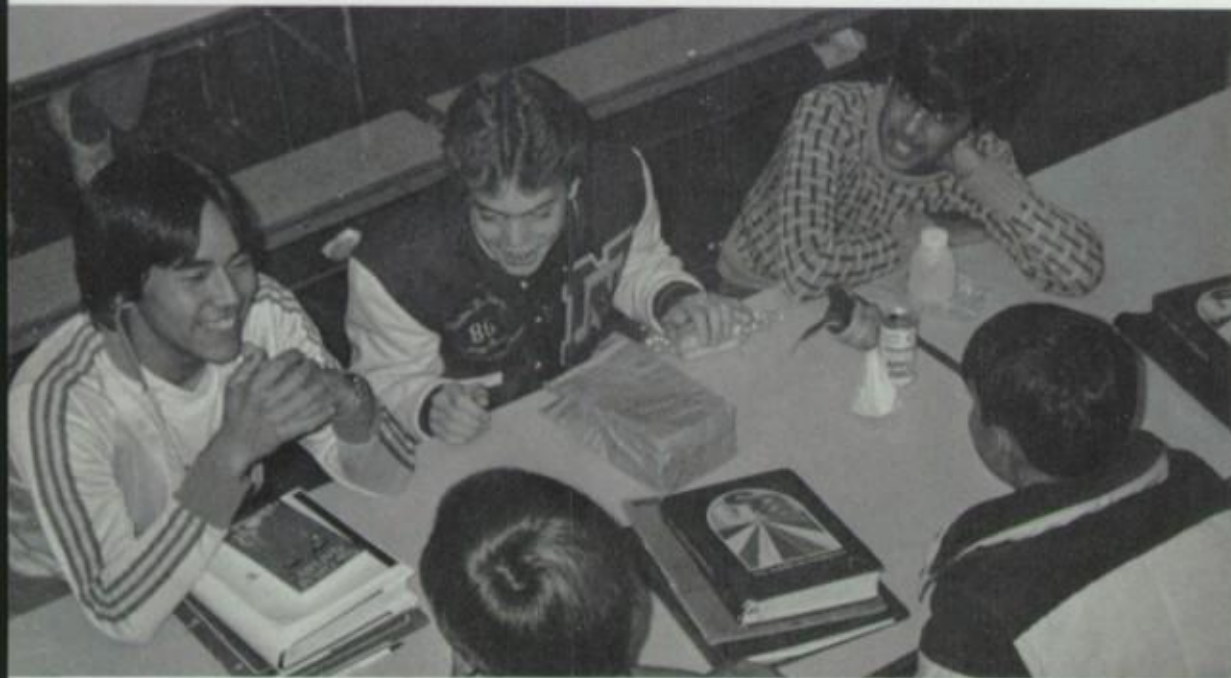

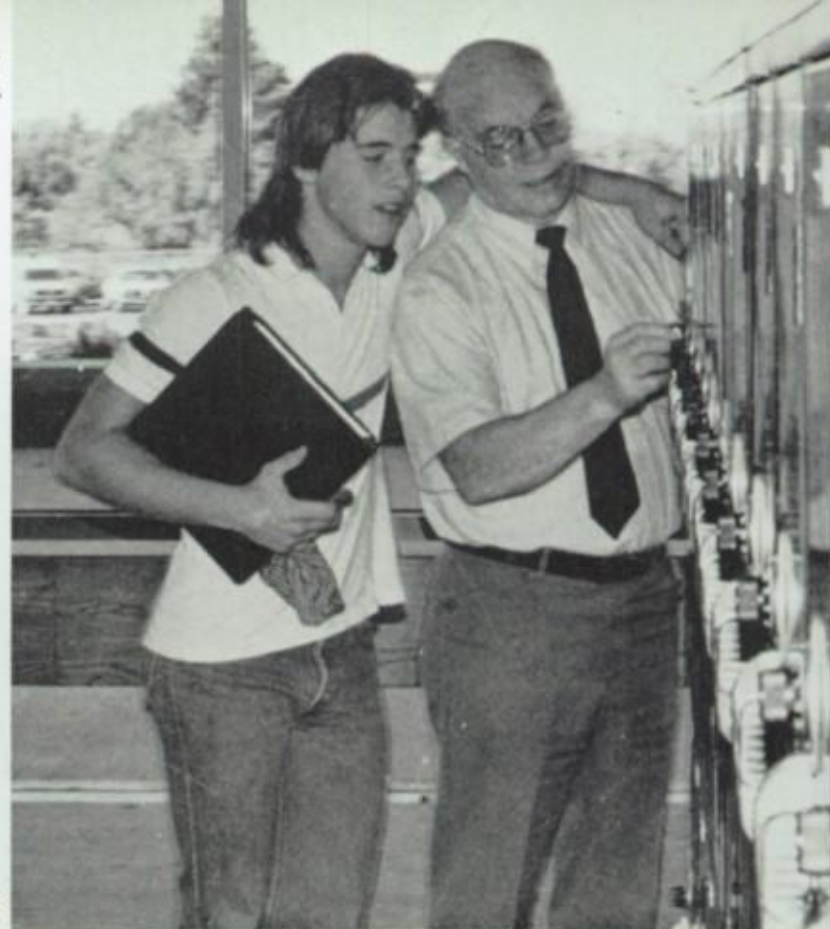

Well babe we've sure been through a lot huh?!
I just hope you know that no matter what, even if I am being a bitch & not talking to you, I still love you and care for you! You just have to try and understand that, there is no way I could ever just forget about you and walk away, you mean to much!

Well we're SENIORS And this year is going to be great! Have an awesome summer c'll see ya around August O.K.P. LOVE YA LOTS!

Memories, like the corners of our minds, misty water, called memories, of the way we were.
Scattered pictures of the smiles we left behind; smiles we gave to one another, for the way we were.
Can it be that it was all so simple then, or has time re-written every line? If we had a chance to do it all again, would we? Could we?
Memories may be beautiful, and yet what's too painful to remember, we simply choose to forget.
So, it's the laughter we will remember, whenever we remember, the way we were ...

even about we supposed

JUNIORS

JUNIORS' NIGHT TO SHINE

The setting of the 1985 Jr. Class Prom was at the elegant ballroom of Boundry Oaks Country Club. Before the prom, couples enjoyed dining at all sorts of classy restaurants around the bay area. Couples began to arrive at nine o'clock, dressed in beautiful gowns and tuxedos varying in all lengths, colors, and styles. The evening was filled with excitement while the members of the Jr. Class danced to the popular hits of the past school year.

Once the prom had ended, the fun didn't stop. Groups of friends gathered together at one another's houses to start parties of their own. It certainly was a night that no junior will soon forget.

1984-85 EVENTS THAT MADE HISTORY

1) Democratic presidential candidate Walter Mondale made history when he chose a woman, Geraldine Ferraro, as his vice-presidential running mate. He announced early in his campaign that to lower the federal deficit, increased taxes would be necessary. 2) President Ronald Reagan and Vice-President George Bush sought re-election in 1984. They vowed not to raise taxes and ran on the record of the previous four years. 3) Princess Diana gave birth to Prince Harry in late 1984. Both pictured with Prince Charles and their other son, two-year old Prince William. 4) President Reagan won re-election with the biggest electoral vote in the nation's history, winning 49 states with 49 percent of the total vote. The photo shows President and Mrs. Reagan at the inauguration ceremony, January 21, 1985. 5) The Statue of Liberty celebrated her 98th birthday in 1984. Worn down by the elements and pollution, she began to show her age. A two-year restoration began in July.

1) The United States Marines arrived in Beirut in 1982. In 1984 when the Marines left, more than 260 Marines were dead, Lebanon was still at war with most of its territory occupied by foreign troops and its government tottering. 2) Pope John Paul II spent 1984 traveling. In May he went to South Korea, Thailand, Papua New Guinea and the Solomon Islands. The photo shows the Pope in Mt. Hagen, Papua New Guinea where he met some of the 200,000 natives that turned out to welcome him in the highland jungle country. 3) After years of civil war, elections were held in El Salvador in 1984. Jose Napoleon Duarte, was elected president in what international observers called the most open and free election in that country in 50 years. The photo shows a soldier reading a newspaper with the headline "There is Faith in the Electoral Process." 4) Mission specialist Bruce McCandless takes a walk in space in early 1984. In the photo he is seen using the so-called manned maneuvering unit as he moved away from the Shuttle Challenger during the eight day space mission.

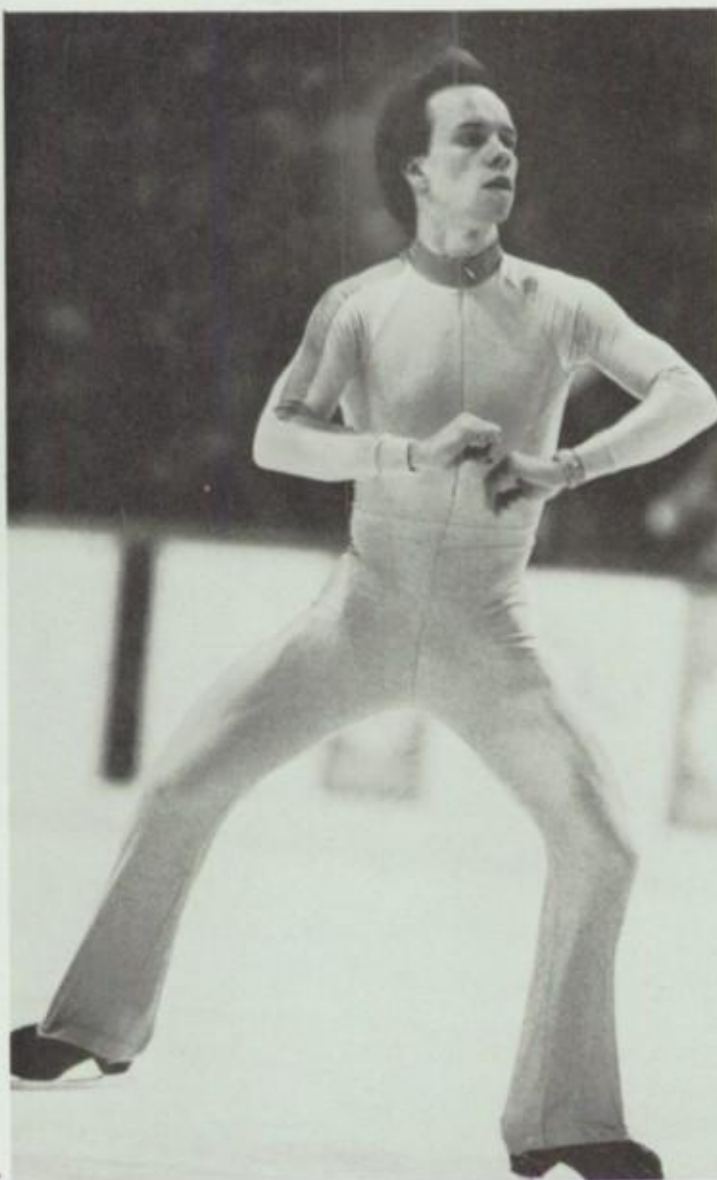

1) Michael Jackson conducted his so-called Victory Tour to more than a dozen cities. All shows were sell-outs, despite controversial ticket sales. 2)&4) Vanessa Williams was forced to surrender her title as Miss America at the request of pageant officials because she had posed nude for sexually explicit photos. Suzette Charles, the first runner-up, became the 58th Miss America and she crowned Sharlene Wells, Miss Utah, at Atlantic City's 59th Pageant in September. 3) Robert Duvall received an Oscar for his role as a washed-up country singer who overcomes alcoholism in the film "Tender Mercies". Shirley MacLaine won for best actress as an eccentric mother in "Terms of Endearment," which also won the best picture award.

1) The world series in 1984 saw the Detroit Tigers beat the San Diego Padres four games to one. The Chicago Cubs came close to getting into the series, but the Padres won. In the American league, the Kansas City Royals lost in the play offs to the Tigers. The photo shows Kirk Gibson of Detroit jumping for joy after scoring in game five. Darrell Evans is the on-deck hitter. 2)&3) The Winter Olympics in Yugoslavia saw the United States win four gold medals and four silver medals. Scott Hamilton won a gold in the men's figure skating, and Steve Mahre won the gold medal in the Giant Slalom skiing event.

1) & 2). The Soviet Union and other Communist countries boycotted the Summer Olympics, held in Los Angeles, California. Despite the boycott, the United States did very well, winning 83 gold medals, 61 silver and 30 bronze. Carl Lewis won four gold medals one in the 100 meters, the 200 meters, the four-by-100 meter relay and the long jump. Mary Lou Retton won the all-around gold medal and led the the gymnastics team to a silver medal. She also won bronze medals for the floor exercise and the uneven bars and took a silver medal for the vault. 3). San Francisco 49'er quarterback Joe Montana led his team with passing and rushing to win the MVP award at Super Bowl XIX at Stanford Stadium. The game tied the Super Bowl record for the most points scored as the 49'ers defeated the Miami Dolphins 38-16.

The men's gymnastic team astonished the world by winning the gold medal in team competition during the summer Olympics. Led by the only veteran Olympic performer Bart Conners and outstanding individual performances by Peter Vidmar and Mitch Gaylord, the team beat the outstanding and highly favored Chinese & Japanese Gymnastic teams. This was the first gold medal won by an American team in over 40 years.

WHAT DO MADONNA AND PRINCE

HAVE IN COMMON? GUESS?!

THE KID!

This year's fashions were much influenced by music and video stars such as Madonna and Prince. Even Cyndi Lauper began a few trends with her fluorescent thrift store look. Girls donned neon clothes and Madonna inspired looks by wearing Lace gloves, headbands, and enough bangles and bracelets to add another pound to their wrists.

Forenza fever was an epidemic that everyone caught this year. The v-neck and crew neck sweaters were to be seen everywhere, and there wasn't a day this school year when some girl wasn't wearing one.

Guys' fashions included the new black 501's, but the original blue could always be seen. Nordstroms opened in August and became fashion headquarters for Northgate. They carried everything from 501's, to Guess, to neon for guys.

Among the pastimes this year, Trivial Pursuit challenged minds across the country. Cabbage Patch Kids craze continued to cause riots in the department stores this Christmas, with parents paying up to 200 dollars for them.

This year's fashions weren't anything that won't survive. By the time next school year rolls around, our eyes will have recovered from the neon-shock. Hopefully next year's colors will be a little more subdued, and we will have people other than Video stars to influence our fashions.

"Like a virgin." 2. "I wanna be your lucky star." 3. "I knew a girl named Nikki . . ." 4. Who was the victim of the first real-life murder ever seen on TV? 5. Nordstrom 6. "Guess Again." 7. "Need we say more?!"

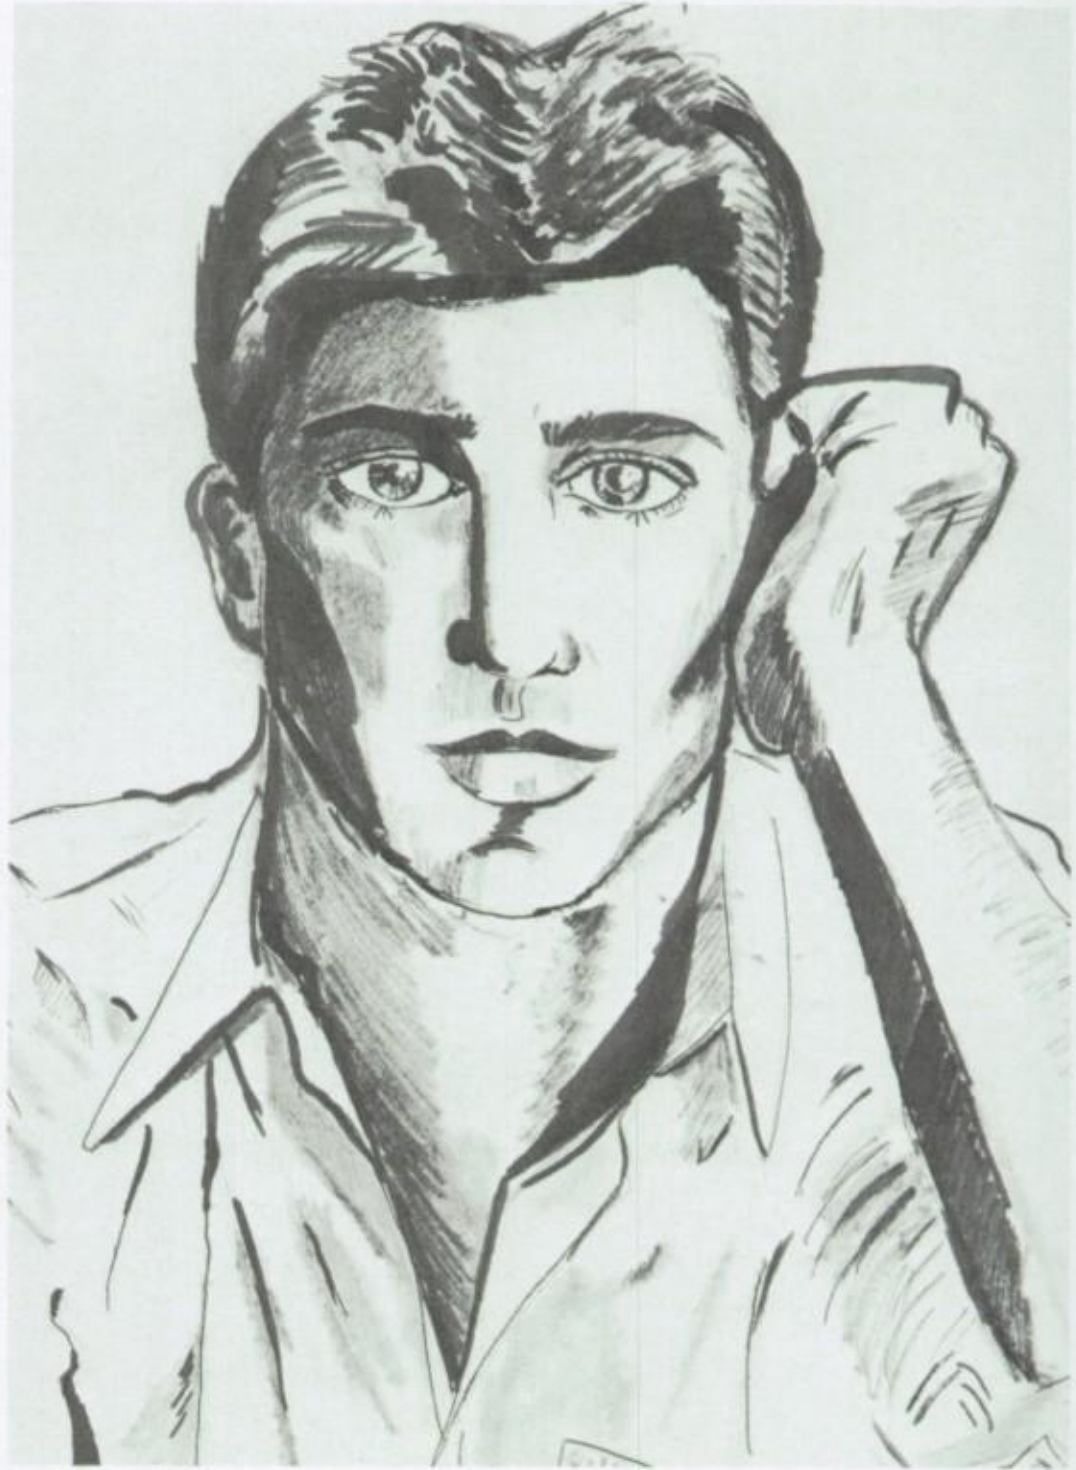

Answer: Lee Harvey Oswald

NORTHGATE STUDENTS SHARE THEIR TALENT

Sometimes,
When everything seems to be useless
And giving up
seems the easy way out,
Stop
And reach for that spark of light which always shines brightly
No matter how dim
we perceive it to be.
For without hope
there is no future.
Take time to be yourself,
So that those who care
about you can find themselves
in you.
But most of all
Love life,
For once you take
the easy way out,
It's gone forever.

Runnin' to Live

The moon's cryin' out
no more lonely nights,
Lookin' for somthin'
to tell her it's right.
Clouds cover up
what's glowin' inside-
when chance is gone
the world had died.
Determined that sun
is no brighter than she,
there's somethin' inside
she knows they can't see.
Pressure builds up
she's burstin' inside-
Runnin' to live
before she can die

Good- Bye

As you turn to go
 I want you to remember all of the good things
 Not the bad
 Remember the fun
 And not the pain
 Remember the joy
 Not the sorrow
 Be happy about who you are and what you do
 Don't think of what you'd change or the past
 And above all the rest
 Try to make everything around you a little bit better for everyone else
 Don't Leave this place the way it was left to us
 Make it better and better each day
 Because that is how people will remember you
 By what you did

Brian - well really - its been "nice" knowing you, and having you in two of my classes. You'll probably be in one of mine next year. Don't you hate it when people say "have a nice summer" - I do, so fuck off and go to hell this summer. Really! I dare ya. (Sniff-sniff) Whats that odor I'm smelling? I love ya Haven willin

Brian,

I am really glad we are friends, we definitely have to party again together in the orchards. This time we trip me out! I hope I see ya this summer. Take Care Give me a Call. 934-2282 Love Karen

CONGRATULATIONS

Brian,
You're a special at

Brian,
The offer is still open to take my brother away from me, ... I'm begging you, please. You are such a sex object I can't even handle
it. I hope that we have at least one class together, so that we can cause trouble. Can't believe that you are going to be a Senior too. Have a great summer, remember you can still have my brother.
Love,
Karin

Brian -

Hey Dude Surfs up! I'm real glad to get to know you better this year. You're a wild-n-crazy guy!! Thanks for cheering me up so much! You're such a spaz sometimes!
I know I'll be seeing you lots over the summer - we'll go surfing eh?! See you soon! Watch those chores -

Love always,

Brian,
I am really glad that we are still friends. You are such a funny guy.
You have such a way of cheering people up. I hope you have a great summer. Maybe we will be in some classes together. Take care. Love,
Amy

Brian -

Hey buddy! Can you believe we're seniors? I think we deserve it. I don't know you all that well but you seem like a great guy. You are always happy and friendly, and I really like that in a person. Keep it up! Take care -

Sharon

Brian,

Renee (Betty Boop!) is signing your yearbook! Aren't you lucky! You are the funniest person I know! I love being around you! I'm so glad we'll become friends! You have to call me over this summer so we can go do something! (947-4682)! I love ya lots!

Brian!

P.S.
See ya at the vet
Mr. White's lick!!

I can't tell you how much fun
I had turning you on in Spanish!
You're a great guy, but please take it easy on the cloves "K"?
Hopefully Mr. White will realize what an ass he is + retire early.
I hope you have a killer summer!
Good luck next year!

Love forever -

Brinny, William Bri Ri 1986

"Lying in my bed, I hear the clock tick and think of you, caught up in circles confusion is nothing new!
Flashbacks of warm nites, almost left behind, suitcase of memories, time after some times you picture me, I'm walking too far ahead, you're callin to me I can't hear what you've said. And you say go slow, I fall behind,
The second hand unwinds. If you're lost you can look and you will find me Bri TIME AFTER TIME!!!!!!

What can I say babe! I LOVE YOU and I always will. We have had so many great times during our 10-11^{Save} months, with so many more to come!
I'm really going to miss you this summer and you better write me back when I write to you! Okay?!
I am upset about you not getting your license before I depart, but hey!
you'll just owe me a nite on the town when I get back! Remember:
The mula's in the coola, when Doves
Cry, Kittay, Kittay, Kinny, Darling Nicki, midnite movie, Arouse, McKimmy's in February, Gelkin's hot tub T.J.'s bathroom
you driving, Carlos Murphy's, Scarecrow,
X-mas, Alicia's going away party,
Victoria's Secret (underwear) Halloween, Nitemare on Elm Street, etc. etc. I could write a book! Remember I care!
YOU'RE OUTRAGEOUS! LOVE, JEN MARIE

Brian -
I'm so glad that we've become such good friends this year. You are such a special person and I can't thank you enough for all the help you've given me. The best of luck w/len (I know how much you like her!) I'm sure we'll all be seeing each other over the summer and next year is gonna be bitchin'.
Senior yr. is gonna be the most anyways Brian, I hope that we don't lose touch over the summer. If you ever need to talk, call me 943-6875.
I'll see ya! Love-n-friendship,
neda

Brian,

The year was fun, you got me excited to close your basket we'll have to go to party heavily this summer right? anyway always remember I drink alone!!

P.S. call me and we'll go party 934-1739.

Later - See ya next year

CLOVES SUCK!

Hey Turbo,
History was killer
with all our wrestling matches, me killin all you guys. We should do something over the summer. Maybe I'll teach you my secret Indian dances.
(If you're real nice) You're a great guy.
Hope we see you, so you better call!
Love,
Jennifer
